

Conscience Justice COUNCIL

Hilton Atlanta Northeast, 5993 Peachtree Industrial Blvd., Peachtree Corners, GA 30092

Dear Conscience and Justice Friends,

In an era where conscience and justice face attacks both here and abroad, the 4th Annual Conscience & Justice Council (CJC) Convention tackles the theme of Faith, Community and Justice. Now more than ever, we need to model the word of God in pursing equity and liberty of conscience for all. As a representation of the public affairs and religious liberty (PARL) ministry, we follow and study the biblical basis for conscience and justice.

During this provocative convention, we'll explore how to communicate internally and externally conscience and justice issues, Daniel, Revelation, and the Latter Rain, persecution here and abroad, human trafficking, #MeToo, fair housing, issues impacting our community, and so much more. Our interactive and engaging workshops provide you with tips and resources for you to take back home for implementation, as well as time to get your questions answered.

At this CJC Convention: Faith, Community, and Justice, we created workshop tracks for pastors, departmental leaders and Hispanics. In addition, you can participate in the entire conference in English or in Spanish. Our target audience represents pastors, elders, departmental leaders, PARL leaders and their ministry teams, communication directors, social justice advocates, activists, and anyone 18 years and older interested in conscience and justice issues regardless of faith affiliation.

Are you interested in coming early for a learning experience? Sign up for the Preconvention to Montgomery, and tour the Legacy Museum and the National Memorial for Peace and Justice Wednesday, Sept. 25. On Sept. 26, you can sign-up for another preconvention, and tour Morehouse Chapel, Joseph and Evelyn Lowry Institute, and the Carter Center in Atlanta.

To register or seek additional information about this conference, please visit www.cjcouncil.org or call (800) 732-7587.

We look forward to personally greeting you at the Hilton Atlanta Northeast in September.
