Understanding Self-Care

WHAT IS SELF CARE?

Self care is an activity carried out by individuals to care for themselves with things that benefit themselves, both spiritually and physically. In short, self care is taking care of yourself.

However, self care is often considered selfish by some people. Why is that? This happens because from a young age our mindset or some people have been taught that "we have to care about and prioritize other people before ourselves." Finally, the concept is embedded by some people.

Indeed, caring and being concerned about others is something that needs to be applied within yourself, but don't forget to remain selfish. In fact, self care must be balanced.

Ways to Improve Self-Care

INCREASE SELF ESTEEM

Self esteem is the most important part of self care, especially in avoiding psychiatric or psychological illness. This is because a low level of self-esteem can put oneself in a state of constant anxiety and negative thinking.

MEDITATION

Meditating will help you to recognize emotional feelings, whether they are positive or negative emotions. Spend at least 5-10 minutes a day meditating.

EXERCISING ROUTINE

Doing sports has been proven to affect our body and mind. Sports are not always synonymous with burdensome activities. There are several relaxing sports that we can apply, such as aerobics, jogging, cycling, and the like.

BODY CARE

If your body feels tired from the work you have done all day, do this self care. Doing massage, spa, or just doing aromatherapy will make your body and mind relaxed and fresh.

Self-care Ideas for Life Balance

- 1. Take a random day off. Have a day off without any planning or purpose. Just to be off from work.
- 2. Plan for a weekend holiday. Go for a short trip. Escape from the routine.
- 3. Get to work early. Avoid the rush hour. This also means you might be able to leave work early.
- 4. Leave work early. Enjoy some free time when the sun is still there.
- 5. Eat lunch away from your office. Take a little break. Breathe some fresh air.
- 6. Have a small chat. Talk about something other than work. This makes your time at work less dull.
- 7. Turn off work-related email notification. Make off-hour really off-hour.
- 8. Wear your favorite outfit to work. Boost your happiness by a smart and refreshing appearance.
- 9. Have some healthy snacks. Supply energy to your body.
- 10. Listen to soft music. Relieve your stress with a soft background music.

Self Care in Difficult Times

SET BOUNDARIES

On a daily basis, Ricketts recommended to, "Acknowledge your privilege, set boundaries, and learn to say no." Setting boundaries is essential to a healthy life, but it's a skill that many of us never learn.

Meditate

There's a reason that meditation is one of the most talked-about practices in the wellness world—this is powerful. Meditation is effective for self-care because it takes our focus off of the world around us, and puts it back on ourselves.

Rest (no, not just sleeping)

On a daily basis, Ricketts recommended to, "Acknowledge your privilege, set boundaries, and learn to say no." Setting boundaries is essential to a healthy life, but it's a skill that many of us never learn.

Check in with yourself frequently

There's a reason that meditation is one of the most talked-about practices in the wellness world—this sh*t is powerful. Meditation is effective for self-care because it takes our focus off of the world around us, and puts it back on ourselves.

Congratulations on your journey to 'I Do'! Choosing the right photographer and videographer is a pivotal step in crafting the everlasting memories of your special day. To simplify this process, we've curated a unique approach in the 2024 BC Wedding Vendors & Brides Bridal Handbook, categorizing professionals into distinct styles. This guide empowers you to envision your dream wedding visuals right from the start!

Why Categorize? In the vast world of wedding photography and videography, each professional brings a unique style and perspective to the table. By categorizing into specific styles, we aim to streamline your search, making it easier to find the perfect match for your vision and preferences. Dive into the categories below to discover the essence of each style and choose the one that resonates with your love story.

Traditional Wedding Photography: Embracing timeless elegance, traditional photography captures classic poses and formal moments. Ideal for couples seeking a refined and classic representation of their love.

Photojournalistic Wedding Photography: Candid and unscripted, this style tells the authentic story of your day as it unfolds. Perfect for those who value raw emotions and genuine moments over posed shots.

Hybrid Wedding Photography: A perfect blend of tradition and photojournalism, the hybrid style offers versatility. Expect a mix of classic poses and spontaneous captures for a comprehensive wedding album.

Elopement Photography: Tailored for intimate celebrations, elopement photography focuses on the couple's unique connection against picturesque backdrops. Ideal for those opting for a smaller, more personal ceremony.

Destination Wedding Photography: Capturing love in exotic locations, destination wedding photography brings your dream celebration to life. Perfect for couples tying the knot in breathtaking settings.

Photography/Videography Team: Enjoy the best of both worlds with a dynamic team capturing your day in stunning photographs and cinematic videos. Ideal for couples seeking a comprehensive visual experience.

Traditional Videography: For those who appreciate the art of storytelling through a classic lens, traditional videography captures the essence of your day with a timeless touch.

Cinematic Videography: Elevate your wedding story with cinematic videography, creating a visually stunning narrative that feels like a work of art. Perfect for couples who desire a cinematic expert.

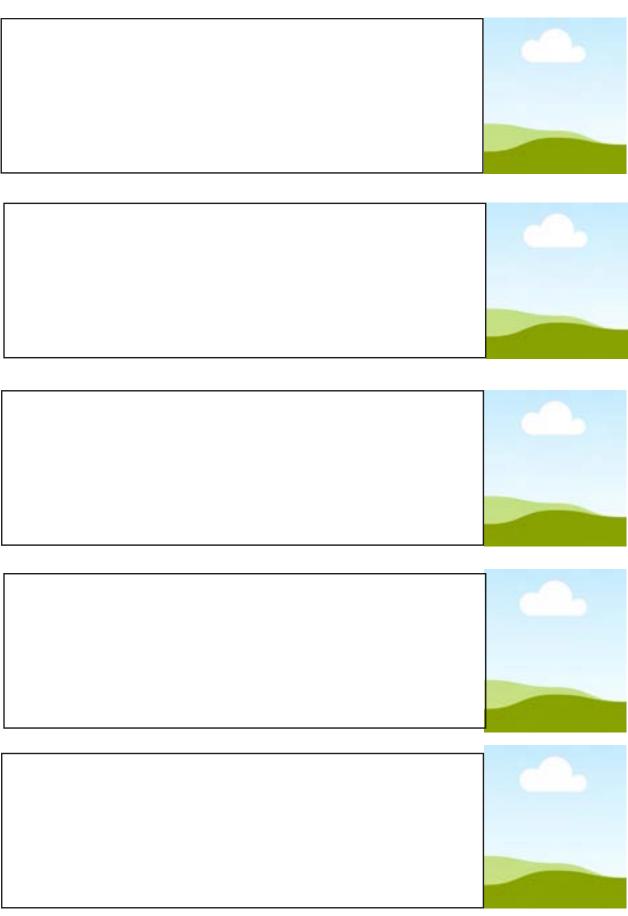

Find Your Visual Symphony: The Bridal Handbook is your key to discovering the perfect match for your wedding visuals. Dive into each category, explore the portfolios, and connect with the professionals whose style aligns with your vision. Your wedding journey begins with finding the storyteller who understands and enhances your unique love story.

FROM OTTAWA WEDDINGWEDDING VENDORS & BRIDES

I am so grateful, and blessed for all the support I have received from both brides and vendors for making this possible.

I look forward to lifting up more brides, couples and vendors over the next year through both through the bridal handbook, as well as through our amazing group. It has been an honor serving all of you.

A special congratulations to all the couples planning their wedding!

Your Truly,

Rhonda Heaslip
