This is the lady from the Land Trust, she is a bit of a loose cannon, we had to try and calm her when the water issue was ongoing, as she was sending messages that were not correct.

She phoned [Corporate Comms] (copied) and then myself claiming she wanted to have the area declared as an emergency health zone and a danger to life, I did email their [Chief Executive] to make sure that the message was clear.

She needs to go

I totally agree re wrong person in place and have said this to [name] many times, she is very anti-Hill and almost sees us as the enemy rather than a stakeholder.

Thanks

Morning all

I will be picking this up with [name] today and will arrange a meeting with [name] to discuss Hilary's appointment.

To give a bit of background – we have on numerous occasions raised our concerns with Land Trust about Hilary's conduct, and we had a meeting with Hilary's [manager?] in Sept/Oct last year to discuss her role at Marleigh.

We were informed in this meeting that she had been diagnosed with ADHD and Autism and that Land Trust would be monitoring her performance and providing her with the necessary support and training.

Evidently this is still not working, so we will request that Land Trust appoint someone else at Marleigh, however I am aware from previous conversations with Marshall that they are very reluctant to remove her from the role due to her relationship with the residents and local councillors.

Kind regards

Afternoon Alan

I hope this email finds you well.

I am writing to you to raise our concerns about the Estates and Facilities Officer Hilary Bannerman, who is appointed at Marleigh development in Cambridge.

There have been several incidents over the last few months, which has now been escalated to senior members at Hill.

We would like the opportunity to discuss these matters with you, as well as Hilary's role at Marleigh.

Please can you confirm your earliest availability to have a meeting with Hill and Marshall either this week or early next week.

I look forward to hearing from you.
