

Talkin' Baseball/Jr. Chiefs Baseball Club Press Release

June 2020

The Sequoyah Jr. Chiefs Baseball Club and Talkin' Baseball are excited to announce a long-term agreement. Beginning with the 2020-2021 baseball season, Talkin' Baseball will oversee all operations of the Jr. Chiefs Baseball Club and Talkin' Baseball's travel teams. The Jr. Chiefs Baseball Club will continue to brand the 9U through 12U age groups and start expanding to multiple teams at each age group. Talkin' Baseball will help expand the program's upper age groups, 13U through 15U, as well as brand a new 8U instructional team.

Program Benefits:

- Air conditioned 5,000 sq. ft. indoor Training Facility
- Breaking ground July 2020, Talkin' Baseball is building a 4,000 sq. ft. outdoor training facility addition
- Private baseball field and campus
- Fall development program that focuses on position development
- Private instruction package included for all rostered players
- Talkin' Baseball will provide each team with professional training for coach and team development
- Pitching development training included for each team by Talkin' Baseball Pitching Instructor, Zach Cagle
- Partnership with Double Play Recruiting providing baseball metrics for the 13U - 15U age groups that will aid with player development and assist with college recruiting
- Paid professional coaches for the 13U - 15U age groups

We are excited to have the opportunity to expand our baseball program and continue to develop high character athletes into premier baseball players.
