

LIFE IN EDEN

Eden Evangelical Lutheran Church
Munising, Michigan
July 2025

All are welcome. Come as you are!

Dear Church Family,

June has been a month of learning much about this call I have accepted. My time management skills were tested as I prepared for Pentecost Sunday with the Annual Fish Fry, three funerals, Pride Fest, and sermon writing. Honestly, I felt very intimidated by the week, unsure if I could prepare for three funeral services. But I created a great work schedule that alleviated that stress. Caring for the hearts of three families was an honor, yet still new to me, and I feared that something clichéd or insensitive might come from my mouth.

If you haven't attended U.P. Rainbow's Pride Fest in Marquette, you'll find that it is much like any other festival. There are vendors selling handmade items, henna and balloon artists, craft and game booths, food trucks, and live music. The attendees range from families with young children, teens to seniors. There might be a few costumes, and there is a lot of color and bling. The atmosphere is one of celebration, hope and love. As a straight person, I didn't feel unwelcome or like I was 'crashing the party'. I wore my collar and my Eden Lutheran Church sweatshirt. Several times, I was thanked for being there. There is a strong church presence at Pride Fest. Our table was next to Messiah Lutheran from Marquette and an Episcopalian group. For the first time, the Northern Great Lakes Synod Christ's Kaleidoscope Team also had a table.

I visited many of the community support tables and learned about the services and goals of several programs. These included mental health support, Planned Parenthood, health departments, family support and suicide prevention and postvention (care for those left behind after a suicide). While I can't presume to know people's religious background, Christ was at work showing love and support to this at-risk community. (This is one of the most targeted communities by perpetrators of hate crimes.) I was proud to represent Eden and hope that we can form a few teams of two to represent Eden next year. This is an important way to share God's love with people.

My last service to officiate in June was an extra special one with the baptism of Elizabeth Decet, daughter of David and Brandalyn Decet. I have a special connection with the family. David and Brandalyn's wedding was the first that I officiated (with my internet certification.) David and Brandalyn have become active members of Eden. They often usher, host fellowship after service, and help when needed. Brandalyn began serving as our treasurer in January, and David has joined our audit team.

Lastly, I am happy to say that I have completed my first Theological Education for Emerging Ministries (TEEM) module. The TEEM program has nine modules to complete before ordination.

In peace,
Vicar Elaine Robbins

Why Does Eden have a Fish Fry?

Prepared by Brenda St. Martin

With thanks to Jean Hayes, Joanie Hinsa, and Patsy LaCombe

On January 30-31, 1998, members of Eden participated in a congregational visioning process. The two-day workshop was facilitated by Dr. Mark A. Olson, one of the authors of the book, An Evangelizing People.¹

Within this workshop and certainly inspired by Eden's location on Lake Superior, a Vision for Ministry Statement evolved. Pastors Kurt and Mary Beth Kovanen wrote eloquently about this vision in March 1998.

Committed to Casting the Net

Caught in the net of God's grace, Eden Evangelical Lutheran Church will share the message of God's wondrous peace and reconciliation that all people may be welcomed into God's harbor of hope.

We have a "glimpse" of God's vision for Eden Evangelical Lutheran Church. This "glimpse" is a gift of the Holy Spirit. Let us all enter a period of personal prayer and reflection of how this vision will impact our lives, as individuals and as a faith community. What follows are some "musing" that try to give meaning to some important "vision" words and phrases.

Caught in the net of God's grace... Through the waters of Baptism, through a death on a cross, through the prompting of the Holy Spirit, God has us snug and secure. There is no fear of being lost in a sea of hopelessness. "Once you were nobody. Now you are God's people." (1 Peter 2:10)

Will share the message... God is calling you to share the message. Not just the "church staff," but you as an individual, you as a parent, you as an employee, you as a neighbor. You will share this message to all people. In this time and place. How?

- Through praise ... regular worship, personal prayer life, offering of time, talents and treasures in support of God's ministry.
- Through righteousness ... fellowship with others, listening to others, mutual conversation and consolation, through teaching Sunday Church School or Weekday Church school, attending adult bible studies, Man's Breakfast, Women at the Well.
- Through compassion ... introducing yourself to someone you don't know, inviting someone to worship or a church event, sewing quilts for Lutheran World Relief, volunteering to be in the nursery, opening the door wide enough so others can enter freely.

The possibilities are endless for sharing the message of God's wondrous peace and reconciliation in your own lives and in your own ways, with others. "In the scriptures it says: 'I spoke because I had faith.' We have that same kind of faith. So we speak ... all this is for your sake, so that as grace extend to more and more people it may increase thanksgiving to the glory of God." (Corinthians 4:13-15)

God's wondrous peace and reconciliation ... Life is an incredible gift. God is like a cheerleader, never losing spirit. There is "wonder" in what God has done and is doing. Being "sanctified" is being brought to forgiveness. The sins of the past are washed away. A glimpse of the future leads us forward in love. It has been said that faith does not demand anything but freely surrendered and joyously daring trust upon God's unfelt, untried, and unknown goodness.

That all people may be welcomed ... That means anybody and everybody. Rich or poor, educated or not, young or old. Church-goers and non-church-goers. Members and those yet to be members. This whole faith enterprise called Eden Evangelical Lutheran Church has achieved its purpose if one person comes to know Jesus ... and (who knows?) maybe that happened 10 years ago, or (who knows?) maybe it will happen tomorrow afternoon.

Into God's harbor on hope ... let us live in hope. Let us see that hope is not something momentary or occasional but rather comprehensive, and world embracing and life penetrating. There is more to do than recognize the sheer face of salvation and give witness to it: there are unnumbered details of grace, of mercy, of blessing, to be appreciated and savored. That's the wonderful gift of the "abundant life" that Jesus freely offers all. "May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, so that by the power of the Holy Spirit you may abound in hope." (Romans 15:13)

Peace be with you, Pastor Kurt and Pastor Mary Beth. ²

The Evangelism and Social Ministry Committee planned the first fish fry on April 26, 1998. The committee took Jesus' words of invitation, "Come and have breakfast" (John 21:12) to heart and freely fed all who were hungry. This was an act of praise, for it points to the One who feeds us with love and salvation.

Everyone received an imprinted pen as a reminder of the commitment for "Casting the Net." Also available was a magnet with the vision statement (for your refrigerator or file cabinet).³

Evelyn Balko, Jim Landfair, Jean Moore, and Sam Sutherland planned and organized. The cooks were Greg LaCombe and Curt Erickson, along with Jim and Sam. Wanda Wilder brought homemade bread; others brought salads and bars. Many more helped with clean-up. VanLandschoot and Sons provided whitefish for the fish fry and donated a fish net and sinkers to adorn Eden's sanctuary. Sydney's Restaurant provided carry home boxes for fish fry take-out orders.⁴

On May 23, 1999, the second fish fry became an annual event. Following the 11 a.m. worship, all were invited to have a delicious meal of fish, salad, and bread. The Biblical theme came from John 21:4-17. *After enjoying the meal of fish provided by Jesus himself, Jesus looks to Peter and asks him three times, "Do you love me?" After the third time, Peter was hurt, "So he told Jesus, 'Lord, you know everything. You know I love you.' Jesus replied, "Feed my sheep."*⁵

The third annual "Vision for Mission" fish fry was Sunday, May 7, 2000. A freewill offering supported the Fortune Lake Camp Scholarship Fund (camperships). Matching funds up to $450 were applied for through Lutheran Brotherhood Upper Peninsula Branch 8076.⁶

The annual fish fry has continued with traditions developed along the way. Worship often includes the hymn, “You have come down to the Lakeshore.” This song first appeared in the With One Voice hymnal (blue book); it is now in the “new” red hymnal.

You have come down to the lakeshore
 Seeking neither the wise nor the wealthy,
 But only asking for me to follow.
 Sweet Lord, you have looked into my eyes,
 Kindly smiling, you've called out my name.
 On the sand I have abandoned my small boat;
 Now with you, I will seek other seas.

Nick Hinsa, as a high school student artist, prepared this drawing around 2010 during Pastor Elisabeth Zant’s call. Nick based the image on Eden’s Vision for Ministry statement and Matthew 4:19, “Come, follow me,” Jesus said, “and I will send you out to fish for people.”

The image has been used in the newsletter, worship bulletin, on t-shirts and polo shirts, and featured on the Facebook page entitled Eden Evangelical Lutheran Church. It can still be found here: <https://www.facebook.com/groups/204974326210246>

With the cost of the fish, breading, oil and propane rising, Eden began suggesting a minimum donation to cover the cost.

During the peak COVID years, the fish fry was suspended. The recent event held on June 8, 2025, may have been the 25th fish fry.

Each year, please come to worship and to the fish fry. Bring a dish to share, pitch in to help, support the endeavor with your gifts, and remember our Vision for Ministry. It is so much more than a tag line.

WORSHIPPER OR WATCHER

Many of us suffer from a disease called "spectatoritis." We go to the theater and watch others do the acting. We go to a ball game and watch others do the playing.

Sometimes we carry this attitude to church. We watch the pastor do the worshiping. He reads the lessons, preaches the sermon, and offers the prayer. We are mere spectators.

This is the malady that accounts for so many people saying that they "don't get anything out of coming to church". The act of just "coming to church" has little value. It's what we do after we get there that counts. Our conscious and thoughtful participation in the service is just as important to its success as is the part the pastor plays.

We are expected to participate. Many hymns are prayers and should be sung by us with prayer in mind. Hymns of praise and gratitude should stir us to praise God and offer him our thanks for his gifts.

The sermon needs good listeners as well as a good speaker if it is to be effective. We should not be concerned with the pastor's diction or his choice of words, but with the truth he is presenting and how it affects our lives.

We're expected to take an active part in the prayers. We must make the petitions read by the pastor our own, adding silent prayers of our own and thinking of what we are actually saying as we pray the Lord's Prayer.

The anthem is not sung to show off the voices in the choir, but as a musical expression of praise, prayer or petition. We should keep our minds on the act of worship we have performed in giving our offering to promote God's work and not be watching others to see what and how they are giving.

In conducting a service of worship, our pastor is not performing for our entertainment, nor is he acting as a substitute for us. He is acting as a leader--leading us in worship as we come individually into God's presence. When we follow his leadership as worshippers rather than watchers we experience God's presence and receive strength from him for daily Christian living.

"THE LUTHERAN" INTO EVERY HOME

One of the real concerns of your pastor is the seemingly small number of copies of our LCA bi-weekly magazine which gets into the homes of our members. The name of the magazine is "The Lutheran".

Let's do all we can to get a blanket subscription for every home in the membership of Eden for 1966, into our new budget.

You see, ordinarily the publication costs $3.00 per year. But if a congregation adopts the "every member" plan the cost is cut to $1.50 per year. Special envelopes are distributed, and the balance which fails to come in is taken out of the annual budget.

The August 18th issue had a feature article on Upper Michigan, mentioning the congregational merger here in Munising. Did you see it?

HYMN OF THE MONTH

Beginning with September, our Eden worship services will include a "hymn of the month". We will begin learning new hymns as well as the background to old hymns. We will sing the "hymn" at each service for the entire month. A bulletin insert will appear on one of the Sundays explaining the background and setting of the hymn. Watch for it.

FINNISH SERVICE AT AU TRAIN

The September Finnish devotional service will be held on Sunday, September 12th, at the cottage of Pastor and Mrs. Niemi on Lake Au Train, beginning at 2:00 p.m. Refreshments will follow the program. All Finnish-speaking members and friends in the congregation and the area are invited.

A house is built of logs and stone,
Of tiles and posts and piers;
A home is built of loving deeds
That stand a thousand years.
