Dear French Quarter Owners,

Lemonjuice has a short update for this week.

We've continued moving key items forward and want to ensure you have clear visibility into what's been completed, what's currently in motion, and what comes next.

Our goal with these regular touchpoints is to maintain transparency, stay proactive, and address any questions early. Below is a summary of recent activity and upcoming milestones.

Beginning this week, several units will undergo vent cleaning and carpet cleaning. This is in the units where we had moisture remediation. Once completed they will receive a fresh coat of paint ready for the upcoming season at the resort!

There is a Town Hall scheduled for this Wednesday, March 11th at 6.30PM CST/7.30PM EST.

Below is the link to attend. Today is the deadline to submit questions ahead of time, however we will take questions in the chat during the session.
