

Texas Medicaid Waiver Interest Lists

Medicaid Waivers provide opportunities to receive cost-effective services and supports such as personal assistance, respite, nursing, equipment, supplies, therapies, and more.

To receive benefits in the future, join the interest lists TODAY.

These waiting lists are very long, and folks have been waiting decades to get to the top. It's very important to get on all the lists now:

- Even if you don't understand them.
- Even if you are unsure if your child will need them.
- Even if you don't think you will qualify for them.

Find and call your Local IDD Authority (LIDDA) representative.

You're at the top! Yet, there are more steps ahead.

When you get to the top of the list, you'll be contacted by a representative, Then you'll go through the process of getting qualified, determining Level of Need (LON), choosing providers, and more. You may use one waiver while staying on lists for others. It's a long journey, but worth the trip.
