

Reasons Why

Let's discuss why we should welcome those with special needs in our churches.

Everyone deserves to worship, learn, and serve in a church near them. Special needs families need Christian friendships and support, and those with disabilities encourage others with their faith, wisdom, and strength. There are numerous reasons to have a special needs ministry in your church, and the most important ones are rooted in scripture.

Questions

- What Bible story or scripture inspires you to serve those with special needs?
- What services does your church currently offer to support families raising children with special needs?
- How do individuals with special needs and their families bless those around them? What lessons can we learn from them?
- Why is it essential to share beliefs and reasons with your team? With your coworkers?
- How can reminding yourself of your beliefs and reasons help you persevere through tough times?
