

Everything Volunteers

Volunteers are everything to ministry, and we do everything possible to help them serve well and experience joy while doing so. Find creative ways to recruit, train, and motivate them. Invest your time and energy throughout the year to build a strong team of lasting relationships.

Ideas

- Share the ways you recruit volunteers.
- Explain your training routine and share your volunteer handbook.
- Brainstorm with the group ways to motivate and care for volunteers.
- Demonstrate interactive games that make volunteer meetings fun.

Questions

- How can caring for your current volunteers be the best way to recruit new ones?
- Is knowing your program's beliefs and goals just as important as understanding procedures?
- What experience or qualifications are required to serve, if any?
- How do you make training fun and fresh?
- What are your volunteers asking to learn?
- How can you help volunteers feel invested in your ministry?
- What are ways to care for yourself and your team?
