

A Basic Simple To The Point Service

Friends, we are gathered together here to unite BRIDE and GROOM in marriage.

This contract is not to be entered lightly but thoughtfully and seriously with a profound realization of its obligations and responsibilities. And always remember, love, loyalty, and understanding are the foundations of a happy and enduring home.

GROOM, do you take this woman to be your lawfully wedded wife, to have and to hold, in sickness and in health, in good times and bad, for richer or poorer, keeping yourself unto her for as long as you both shall live?

BRIDE, do you take this man to be your lawfully wedded husband, to have and to hold, in sickness and in health, in good times and bad, for richer or poorer, keeping yourself unto him for as long as you both shall live?

With the mutual exchange of those promises, I now pronounce you husband and wife by the authority vested in me by the State of Washington and the Universal Life Church.

Congratulations, and you may kiss the bride.
