

JTB 4_I'll Be True to You

Today is a celebration. A celebration of love, of commitment, of friendship, and of two people who are in it for each other -- and for eternity.

Two people. One couple. Once strangers, now to be joined forever in matrimony. Despite all our differences, love is what we all share. It's the great unifier – our one universal truth.

So now, you're about to make promises to each other. Sacred promises to each other that you intend to keep for all the days of your lives. You are becoming one couple, and saying, "Every experience I am going to have, I want and need for you to be a part of."

And so, will you, PERSON A, keep PERSON B as your favorite person, your spouse, your best friend – to laugh with, go on adventures with, support through life's tough moments, be proud of, grow old with, and to find new reasons to love every single day? If you will, please say, "I will."

And so, will you, PERSON B, keep PERSON A as your favorite person, your spouse, your best friend – to laugh with, go on adventures with, support through life's tough moments, be proud of, grow old with, and to find new reasons to love every single day? If you will, please say, "I will."

And now as a couple, will you each swear to me that you be each other's devoted and sole partner? That you will strive daily to bring out the best in one another, to share your deepest thoughts and aspirations with, and will love each other absolutely for the rest of your lives? If so please say in unison, "We do!"

Outstanding! And so it is that by the power vested in me by the Universal Life Church and the State of Washington, I now pronounce you a wedded couple.

Congratulations!
