General Labor Warranty

This General Labor Warranty ("Warranty") is provided by the Contractor/Service Provider to the Customer. 1. Coverage

The Contractor warrants that all labor has been performed in a good and workmanlike manner. This Warranty covers labor defects directly resulting from the Contractor's workmanship for a period of two (2) years from the date of purchase. 2. Exclusions

This Warranty does not cover:

- Materials, equipment, or products supplied by third parties (those may be covered separately by manufacturer warranties).
- Normal wear and tear, misuse, neglect, or lack of maintenance.
- Damage caused by accidents, natural disasters, weather, or alterations made after the work was completed.
- Work performed or altered by anyone other than the Contractor.

3. Remedy

If a defect covered under this Warranty arises within the coverage period, the Contractor will, at their option:

- Repair the defective labor at no additional cost, OR
- Reperform the work to correct the defect.

The Contractor's liability under this Warranty will not exceed the original contract price for the work performed.

4. Notice of Claim

The Customer must provide written notice of any defect within thirty (30) days of discovery, including a description of the issue and photographs if available.

5. Limitations

This Warranty is the sole and exclusive remedy for labor defects. All other warranties, express or implied, are disclaimed to the maximum extent permitted by law.

6. Transferability

This Warranty is provided to the original purchaser only and is not transferable without written consent.
