

Welcome to Afternoon Tea at The Hen and Drake Modern Tearoom

It is with great pleasure that we welcome you to Afternoon Tea with The Hen and Drake Modern Tearoom. The creation of this English institution is credited to Anna Maria Russell, lifelong friend of Queen Victoria, who was looking for a means of avoiding the hunger pangs in the long gap between an early lunch and a late supper.

We at The Hen and Drake remain loyal to the centuries-old tradition, while giving it a contemporary flair, also inspired by our British Caribbean roots - notably a small bean-shaped island in the Eastern West Indies - Barbados.

The centerpiece of this meal is of course the tea, which we've ethically sourced from the finest tea farms from all across the globe.

Your afternoon tea is served on a three tiered tray with a range of savouries, scones, and sweets. Our menu changes seasonally to ensure freshness and excitement. We hope you appreciate the care and detail that goes into every part of your meal. If there is anything more you would like to know, do not hesitate to ask.

All that remains is for us to wish you a wonderful afternoon.
