Program Operation: I understand that CBAG is a free program to those served. All outreach programs are funded by studio profits, driven in by our sales and services, in addition to community support. Donations are needed to continue this work. The “making Him matter’ donation database, detailing the current supplies requested can be located on the outreach page of UnderTheHorizon.net. Monetary donations are also greatly appreciated. I have read and fully understand the above program operation. If I am able, I will do my best to support the studio’s outreach efforts by making a regular donation as well as sharing the value of this work with family and friends who may also benefit by knowing and/or participating.
