04 OUR TEAM

The women who will bring this documentary to life

BACKGROUND

As a former United States soldier, I heard the misconceptions about women in the military and what we were capable of. I heard the assumptions and prejudice facing women in uniform.

The advent of Female Engagement Teams in Afghanistan and the graduation of female soldiers from historically male infantry programs help to counteract those attitudes, however, negative attitudes towards women in service continue.

Recent events in the US military highlight some of the dangers of service for women. This is the right time to document the history of women in warfare and hope it helps foster much needed respect for servicewomen around the globe.

THE SHOW

War is as old as mankind.

And when a woman found herself without the protection of men, she often had to take up arms to protect herself and her family.

There have been many notable women warriors throughout history whose stories have never been told. Excellent series like THE PACIFIC and BAND OF BROTHERS have documented our brave male soldiers, but no series has ever documented the women who have helped shape history through their heroism.

EPISODE ONE
