

Unleash Your Creativity with Nona Morgan

Monday, June 16 from 11am to 2pm

Cost: $68

I am a closet artist.

No! I mean it.

I hide my art away in my closet. I keep my Artist Self squeezed between the white wire cube shelf with the collapsible fern green fabric storage inserts and the tower of ten clear shallow drawers. Each insert, each drawer, top and bottom, every last inch of space is filled with all my art supplies.

Fabulously organized.

Meticulously labelled.

Ready and waiting. Waiting. And waiting.

For what? The right time to create, of course.

WELL, THE RIGHT TIME TO CREATE HAS ARRIVED!

Take your Artist Self out of the closet or wherever they currently reside and come JOIN US at Hawaiian Artisans for three hours of creating with ALCOHOL INKS.

Talk story with Nona Morgan who will share her experience, tips and tricks to get you started.

Work with tiles and paper cards and submerge yourself into the flow of Alcohol Inks.

All materials are provided.

Just bring your awesome self and get ready to create beautiful images in artful company!
