FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

JETTY ENTERTAINMENT INC. ANNOUNCES NEW “PINK COUNTRY MUSIC FESTIVAL TOUR” BENEFITING SUSAN G. KOMEN®

Celebrating Women in Country Music, National Festival Tour to Raise Funds for Breast Cancer Support

NASHVILLE – June 14, 2021 – Jetty Entertainment Inc. today announced the launch of the “Pink Country Music Festival Tour”, a new national touring festival celebrating the women of country music. A portion of ticket sales will benefit Susan G. Komen®, the world’s leading breast cancer organization, to support their work to save lives from breast cancer through breakthrough research, advocacy and direct patient support.

“We know that the last year has been challenging for everyone, but particularly for those who are dealing with the dual challenges of the pandemic while living with breast cancer,” said Jette Porrazzo. “Our goal with this festival is to raise $1 million to help provide critical support to those facing breast cancer today.”

The Tour will feature a number of talented female country artists (singer-songwriters), such as Jette Porrazzo, Casi Joy, Larysa Jaye and Janine Le Clair, among major female country music artists to be announced. The Tour will kick off with a party and concert August 6th at the DoubleTree in Downtown Nashville. The kick-off party will feature the release of Jette Porrazzo’s new country album, Training Wheels (www.jetteporrazzo.com).

“We are honored and excited that the Pink County Music Festival is raising funds for our life-saving work,” said Sarah Rosales, Komen’s vice president of corporate partnerships. “The funds raised by this festival will help women living with breast cancer overcome barriers to getting the care they need to survive.”

Opening weekend of the Festival tour will be September 2-5, 2021 in Kingston, TN hosted by Hayshed Farms on Big Turnbull Creek. The opening weekend concerts will feature:

- Jette Porrazzo
- Casi Joy

- Larysa Jaye
- Laurin Floyd
- Janine Le Clair
- Additional acts to be announced soon.
