INTRODUCING

JORDAN NEWS

PORTFOLIO

Working for Jordan News newspaper for two years was an amazing experience. During my time there, I had the opportunity to conduct interviews and cover various events, exhibitions, and festivals, with a focus on culture, fashion, trendy topics and well-known influencers and personalities. This experience allowed me to learn and grow significantly, especially in terms of my skills in conducting interviews.

OTHER EXPERIENCES

I interned at Radio Bliss 104.3 for 8 months. During my time there, I learned about broadcasting, communicated with listeners, gained experience in hosting and producing shows, and worked with the social media team to create engaging content for their social media platforms.

As an Accounts Manager at 'Aizen Creatives,' my role includes overseeing campaigns and content creation. This involves editing posts, including photos and videos, for various social media accounts. I also engage in client meetings to ensure our efforts align with their vision. Additionally, I plan content calendars.
