What Is ROC Metaphysical?

Hi, I'm the creator of ROC Metaphysical, an online magazine dedicated to metaphysical, spiritual, and alternative wellness topics. You might be wondering about the name—ROC stands for Rochester, NY, the historic home of the Fox Sisters, pioneers of modern spiritualism. Many local businesses use "ROC" as a nod to our city, and it just felt right to include it in the name of a magazine that reflects both community and consciousness.

Each month, ROC Metaphysical features:

- Original articles on metaphysical and spiritual topics
- Alternative health insights
- Videos and interviews
- An events calendar and alternative directory
- Opportunities for advertising and outreach

The new edition is published on the first of every month, and you can explore previous issues in PDF format.

Why I Created ROC Metaphysical

As a lifelong seeker of metaphysical knowledge, I've attended countless classes, read tons of books, watched endless videos, and hosted a metaphysical Meetup group. Through this journey, I met amazing teachers and speakers—people with powerful stories, healing gifts, and insights worth sharing with the world.

That's when I realized: Why not create a place where this information could reach a wider audience?

And just like that, ROC Metaphysical was born.

What You'll Find

Each issue is brought to life by a network of generous, passionate writers who seem to find me at just the right time. Their articles offer a wide range of perspectives—from healing practices and spiritual awakenings to personal stories of transformation.

Whether you're just beginning your journey or have been exploring the metaphysical for years, there's something here for you. Some ideas may resonate, others may challenge you—and that's okay. Growth begins with curiosity and questioning.

Delve into the extraordinary with the latest issue of ROC Metaphysical. Explore thought-provoking articles, spiritual insights, and powerful personal stories that awaken your spirit and expand your consciousness.

What is Channeling?

Channeling is the practice of connecting with non-physical realms or higher consciousness to receive and convey guidance, love, healing, or insight. It involves entering a focused or altered state of awareness to attune to spiritual beings—such as angels, ascended masters, guides, nature spirits, or deceased loved ones—and translating their messages into human language.

The guide explains that channeling expands consciousness, raises vibration, and bridges communication with benevolent higher realms, often referred to as the Universal Mind or Divine Source. True channeling is rooted in discernment, aligning only with loving and high-integrity energies.

Three main types are outlined:

Clairvoyant channeling — interpreting symbolic images and visions.

Conscious channeling — relaying messages while fully aware and able to pause or clarify.

Trance channeling — allowing a being to speak directly through the channeler’s body, as practiced by figures such as Edgar Cayce; this requires training and caution.

Channelers function like interpreters, translating non-verbal spiritual communication into words or writing, and in some cases even physical movement. Examples include Esther Hicks channeling “Abraham” on the Law of Attraction. Channeling is described as a transformative spiritual art that provides accurate guidance, healing energy, and profound insight to help people grow on their path.

Self Worth And Spirituality Go Hand In Hand

By Maureen/Muktima Law

80% of women and 73% of men feel unworthy, they are not enough as they are inadequate.

Each of us has the ability within us to lower these statistics one by one.

We were each loved into existence by God. Worthiness is our innate birthright.

You are worthy just because you exist. You were given gifts no one else has or can express in the exact way you can.

We are Spiritual Beings (Soul) having a human experience. When we connect with our souls on a daily basis through prayer and meditation we remember and strengthen our connection with God, Source, Divine Being, Spirit (any of these words describe a Power Greater than ourselves, guiding all things). As you connect in each day and follow a Spiritual Path that you feel connected to, your life becomes more divinely guided. As this happens the untrue labels you have given yourself, those others may have given society, past generations, they start to fall away and you begin to embody your Worthiness.

You may not recognize this happening, but it is. As with anything in life, you still need to do your part. Actively start to unlearn those untrue labels. IE. "I'm not smart enough, I don't have enough experience, I'm not pretty enough, I'm not fit enough, I'm too tall, too short, too fat, too skinny, I'll never amount to anything, I can't sing, dance etc, etc. The list of untrue labels are endless.

How do you do this? You actively start telling yourself a new story and you start to embody that new story.

Your thoughts, words, actions feelings are all energy. Energy follows energy. What you keep telling yourself and keep doing to reinforce it, is what you become. When you change the energy that you say to yourself you form new thought patterns, new grooves in your brain and as you take action towards that goal of innate worthiness that is what you become, you believe it and you live it.

New labels: "I have the ability to learn anything I want", "My experience/mistakes qualify me", "my height is not of any consequence "" My size doesn't matter, I am worthy of love" etc, etc...

Create an environment for yourself that nurtures worthiness. Create a space in your home that is for prayer and meditation only. Over time that space becomes sacred. Place items around your home, workspace etc. that reflect beauty, peace, joy, love. All visuals of beauty, high vibrational energy, & worthiness.

Listen to music that feeds your soul and quiets your nervous system. Heavy metal, hard rock for example on a regular basis will rattle your nervous system. And if you really are listening to the words, many of the lyrics in these music genres have very derogatory meanings that feed into your unworthiness.

Make sticky notes with positive words, thoughts, etc. And stick them around your environment where you see them several times a day. Repeat the words each time you look at them. You are creating new brain waves and grooves, which will lead to you believing and embodying your God given innate Worthiness.

Surround yourself with people who are in alignment with the new person you are becoming.

Those who support and encourage you.

Those who drain your energy, are discouraging of your hopes and dreams, take advantage of your time and heart, making you feel small and needing to hide in plain sight. Unable to be your authentic self you need to walk on eggshells around. These are not your true friends, or people in alignment with you. This is an unbalanced relationship. If you are unable yet to let the friendship go, I suggest that you create clear boundaries, limit the interactions with this person(s). Spend time with them when it is you deciding the time, place and duration. Eventually the relationship with naturally slip away.

When you show up as your Authentic Self, the right people show up in your life, the right opportunities present themselves. You are in alignment with your true self at Soul Level, life flows more easily and peacefully. And you Walk in Worthiness. You Embody Worthiness.

You then Empower Others just by being in their presence. Because your energy field is emanating worthiness and Love.

You are a Divine Gift in the World. Don't hide in plain sight. Share your gifts. Shine your light.

Be your Authentic Self -Oh beautiful one! You are Loved! You are Worthy!

The Danger Of Unheard Sounds By Jill Mattson

Seeing is believing, but a bizarre experiment revealed that people are affected by sound they cannot hear nor see. Scientists working at Liverpool's Metropolitan Cathedral analyzed the responses of 250 people who heard a 50 minute piano recital and also inaudible vibrations, too low in pitch for them to hear. The audience's emotions intensified as the inaudible sound vibrations were blasted out. Those feeling uncomfortable before the concert got increasingly angry. Their emotion intensified during the piano performance. Others, who were initially happy, got progressively more joyful. Focused concentration on music has a mesmerizing effect, almost hypnotic. The surprising thing is that this is also true for inaudible sound.

In experiments people felt physical affects from the silent blasts: tingling in the back of the neck and a strange feeling in the stomach. [1] This should not come as a surprise as many scientists confirmed harmful effects from unheard or unseen vibrations, such as microwaves and electrical energy. A science experiment conducted by students in Denmark demonstrated that unheard vibrations from cell phones mutilated bean sprouts in a matter of days. Sharry Edwards who brought forth the science of BioAcoustics, certain sounds can make us physically ill.

It is well documented that sound entrains brainwaves, creating specific states of consciousness, and of course music makes us feel as we dance to a lively beat and feel sad with another song. Clearly vibrations of sound change us.

At least within the hearing spectrum we have a clue as to the impact of sound vibrations because we can hear them. Vibrations, even those unheard, can intensify our emotions – for better or worse. Our brain waves can be deliberately altered with sounds, with a similar result – altering our consciousness. Can we be brainwashed or influenced – without a clue as to what is impacting us?

This revives the ancient argument about free will versus destiny. Do we choose our emotions and thoughts, or do we respond like robots to unseen vibrations? Inaudible vibrations have a strong impact on us – our body, mind and emotions, and we are helpless to avoid the strong influences. Waves in close proximity combine – like it or not.

As a consequence of this breaking new knowledge - we should not take people's emotional responses personally – maybe their behavior is a result of some unheard sound vibrations or influence.

Finally, are there “Sound Stalkers?” Are people creating unheard blasts to thin the populations or at least make them ill, depressed or angry? Given all the people creating computer viruses with intent on wreaking havoc... this action would not be hard to conceive of. How many unscrupulous people are blasting us with unheard sounds – what kind of protection do we have?

Sound blasts can be used for good – for nutrition, for encouraging positive emotions, to elevating our consciousness and awareness, and more. How about educating people how we ingest sound? We should monitor unheard vibrations and be warned of their effects. Ultimately, when are we going to take what we listen to seriously?

Plotinus of ancient Greece wrote: “Harmonies unheard create the harmonies we hear and wake the soul to the consciousness of beauty.” He suggested that subtle, unheard sounds (such as those coming from nature) are the sounds that influence musicians to create beautiful works of art. Whether or not unheard sounds (from tiny volumes or out of our hearing range) help or hurt us, is not the biggest issue. We are influenced by all kinds of vibrations, without a clue to their influence, which can be significant. It is time to wake up and take control of our vibratory world! o

[1] http://www.reversespins.com/Music\_and\_Sound.html

About Jill Mattson: My personal interests in Sound Healing, helping people and expanding consciousness were the result of my lifelong love affair with music, coupled with my personal spiritual quest, which I started in earnest about 40 years ago. I was drawn to the study of antiquity; specifically, I extensively examined methods employing Sound Healing and music to alter and improve mind, body, emotions, energy and spiritual aspects of practitioners’ lives. I collected voluminous materials on Sound Healing over many years. This prompted me to write my first book on the field of Sound Healing where I interview leading researchers and scientists in the discipline. Concurrent with my research, I began producing my own Sound Healing recordings. In the early 2000’s I built a studio in my home to record my own compositions. I blend my original music with ancient techniques and embed special sounds in the tracks. The end result is pleasing and beneficial on multiple levels. Many people enjoy the music as a normal listening experience; more significantly, other people have been able to reach new levels of consciousness, peace and wellness by focused listening to my compositions.

The field of Sound Healing is a rapidly growing discipline that is attracting great interest. As indicated above, many of the techniques that are employed stem from ancient traditions. There is also cutting-edge research underway, which is expanding the understanding and promise of this field. My personal specialty in Sound Healing utilizes the intricate combination and interplay of numerous musical effects along with specific frequencies. It is the magical and complex interaction of special healing sounds with the human body and mind that give the impressive results that can be achieved with Sound Healing.

Trust, Growth, And Connection: Why You Need A Mediumship Development Circle

By Rev. Colleen Irwin

Mediumship is a journey of growth, practice, and deepening connection with Spirit. Whether you're a seasoned practitioner, an emerging facilitator, or a beginner, being part of a Mediumship Development Circle offers invaluable support and fosters an environment where trust and confidence are built. Mediumship development is not linear—it's a spiral. You'll return to the same concepts from a different perspective, each time with more depth and understanding.

For the Beginner: A Foundation of Trust and Learning

Starting as a beginner can feel overwhelming, but a development circle offers a safe space to explore your abilities without fear of judgment. Trust is a key component of this journey. Trust in yourself, trust in Spirit, and trust in the group. In a circle, beginners are surrounded by people who share their experiences, which helps foster confidence and openness.

The spiral nature of development means that you'll keep returning to key foundational concepts, such as grounding, protection, and interpreting signs. But with each revisit, your understanding deepens, and your trust in Spirit grows stronger. The support and feedback from the circle build trust not just in your own abilities, but in the collective energy of the group.

For the Experienced Practitioner: Growth Through Giving and Revisiting

For experienced practitioners, development circles provide an opportunity to give back while continuing your own journey of growth. Even after years of practice, returning to foundational concepts like energy management or intuitive development brings new insights. You'll find yourself revisiting these areas with fresh eyes, discovering deeper layers of understanding.

Trust plays a significant role at this stage, too. Trust in your abilities is reinforced as you mentor and guide others. By sharing your wisdom and watching others grow, your own connection with Spirit deepens. The circle becomes a space where you not only continue to develop, but also help others build the same trust in their own gifts.

For the Facilitator: Building Trust and a Safe Space for Growth

As a facilitator, you play a pivotal role in creating an environment where trust thrives. A key part of your responsibility is building a space where each person—no matter their level—feels valued, safe, and supported. Trust within the circle begins with the facilitator, who sets the tone for openness, respect, and inclusivity.

You'll also experience personal growth as a facilitator. Revisiting foundational topics with your group strengthens your connection to these concepts, and the trust you build with circle members enhances the collective energy. Your role is not just to teach, but to create an atmosphere of trust where Spirit can move freely, and participants can explore their abilities without hesitation.

Not All Circles Are Equal: Finding the Right Fit

It's important to acknowledge that not all development circles are created equal. The quality of the circle depends on the facilitator, the structure, and the commitment of its members. Some circles are highly structured, led by experienced facilitators who provide clear boundaries and guidance, while others may be more casual with varying levels of support.

Trust is essential when finding the right circle. A well-led circle will build trust among its members, encouraging everyone to open up and share without fear of judgment. If you don't feel a strong sense of trust in the circle, it might not be the right fit. The best circles foster trust and create a space where everyone feels safe to grow.

The Spiral of Collective Energy and Trust

One of the most powerful aspects of a Mediumship Development Circle is the collective energy that develops over time. As members work together, trust is built not only in themselves but in the group as a whole. This trust is the foundation for deeper spiritual exploration and growth.

The spiral nature of development means that the circle will continually revisit core concepts, each time gaining a deeper understanding. With each revisit, the trust in Spirit and in each other grows, enhancing the circle's collective energy. This shared trust allows for more profound spiritual connections and a heightened sense of community.

The Spiral Path of Mediumship Development

Mediumship development is not a straight line; it's a spiral that continually brings you back to core concepts with new perspectives and greater trust. Whether you are a beginner building trust in your abilities, an experienced practitioner deepening your connection with Spirit, or a facilitator creating a safe space for others to grow, a Mediumship Development Circle provides the support and trust needed for personal and collective growth.

But remember, not all circles are the same. Trust your instincts when finding the right fit. Seek a circle that nurtures growth, builds trust, and creates a safe, supportive environment. The right circle will help you spiral upward in your development, offering both challenges and support as you continue your journey.

Friends Or Lovers? By Barry & Joyce Vissell

“Being in love with each other doesn't mean you have to be Lovers. sometimes you just have to be Friends.”

We have a friend who, shortly after getting married, realized it was a mistake. She felt like she had married a very dear friend and was trying to force a physically intimate relationship where it just did not fit. Both realized their mistake, ended the marriage and, after a brief period of turmoil and adjusting, have continued their beautiful friendship for many years.

Over the years we have seen many people make the same mistake. Two people connect as friends and develop a wonderful relationship based on friendship. There is honesty, respect, caring, all the ingredients of true friendship. Yet, because of social pressures, these two assume the logical next step is sex, marriage, or living together with a monogamous commitment. It is true with same-gendered as well as heterosexual partners. This assumption is often incorrect.

It sometimes happens that two friends have little or no sexual desire for each other. This fact can help make a relationship based on friendship clearer. We knew a man whose involvement with a woman friend was based on a very high level of mutual support and honest communication of feelings. They truly loved one another. Although the man had a desire for physical connection, he never fantasized about sex with his friend. It was a desire to hold her and be held by her. Is there anything wrong with this? No.

On the other hand, sometimes there is a sexual attraction between friends. Here it gets trickier. We're taught all our lives that sexual attraction needs to be acted upon. But this is not necessarily so. Our hearts, not our genitals, and not our minds, must ultimately decide the highest course of action. Yes, it can be quite okay to have a sexual attraction to someone and not act on it. This doesn't mean suppressing the feelings or making them wrong. It means allowing them to be there, acknowledging sexual desire, even talking about these feelings with our friend, and listening deeply to what feels like the right course of action.

Sometimes the only way to find out whether the two of you are friends or lovers is to experience the physical sexual connection. Many people find out this way. They make love and discover the true nature of their relationship. Sexual expression may initiate them into the next level of relationship, be it friends or lovers. If the discovery is friends, not lovers, there needs to be complete honesty about this. Often, our sexual shame causes us to be silent about our feelings. We feel we have made some horrible mistake and have ruined the friendship. But this is not so. Friendships cannot be ruined by having sex. Friendships are only ruined by lack of honest communication of feelings. When we have the courage to be truthful about what we feel, the friendship can progress to the next level. We have seen the best of friends have sex, realize something was lost from the relationship, share openly and honestly their feelings, make a new commitment based on what they learned, and have even more love and respect for one another.

Sometimes this process needs to be repeated several times during a relationship. Sometimes lovemaking can happen too soon in a relationship and, after enough time has passed and the relationship has evolved to a new level of closeness, sexual activity can have a whole new feeling.

It's also perfectly okay to be both friends and lovers. In fact, to truly be lovers is to include the friendship. If lovers are not friends, then it's casual sex, and there's no real connection or fulfillment.

The two of us, and many couples, realize our friendship is the most important ingredient of our relationship. Our sexual relationship is a source of enormous fulfillment, but our friendship is the foundation of our connection.

Mrs. Browning, the poet, once asked Charles Kingsley, the novelist, "What is the secret of your life? Tell me, that I may make mine beautiful also." Thinking a moment, the beloved old author replied, "I had a friend."

Most Benevolent Outcomes Or MBO's By Tom T. Moore

This Blog is for people who wish to learn how to use a very simple, yet powerful and effective spiritual tool every day the rest of your life. It will lessen the stress and fear of life in general, and will make your life easier. It's so simple a lot of people say "It can't be this easy," but it is, because IT WORKS!

This reconnects you with your Guardian Angel, or higher power, or whatever your belief is. You simply say, "I request a Most Benevolent Outcome for... thank you!" When you read the stories below, sent from all over the world, we use the acronyms MBO for Most Benevolent Outcomes, GA for Guardian Angel, and BP for Benevolent Prayers (what you ask for other people).

Be sure to participate when I ask you to say a Benevolent Prayer out loud, but are you also saying the Daily BP each morning as I do? Theo says this is one of the most important things you could do for yourself not only for this life, but all the others you have lived or will live on earth, as they are all happening at the same time. Print it out and put it on your bathroom mirror to remind you. Here is the link: <http://www.thegentlewaybook.com/signs.htm>.

Here is an example of a BP for everyone to say today: "I ask any and all beings to intervene in the most benevolent way to stop any terrorist attacks before they happen anywhere in the world, to respect other religions, and for there to be peace in the world, thank you!"

Editor's note. I think this is very important with the earth going thru so much at this time.

Tom asks that we do this each day:

Please say this out loud each morning: "I now send white light and love to every continent, every island, all the rivers, lakes and streams, and all the oceans and seas, and I release this light to go where it is needed the *most to light up the darkest parts of the world, and I send white light and love to every single person and being I meet or encounter today, thank you!" ******

MBO FOR THE EFFECTS OF LEMON WATER

Kathryn writes: My MBO story might not be one that you want to publish because of the nature of the topic but I just had to share because I'm thrilled.

Every morning I drink a glass of lemon water to help my liver flush toxins from my body. Every time I do this I set my intention by reciting out loud "This lemon water flushes toxins from my liver and detoxifies my body easily and effectively. It's like drinking lemon light." I've done this for several years now. Since finding your website I've added an MBO request to the beginning of it, and the effect is incredible! My body noticeably flushes out a lot more than I'm accustomed to! At first I didn't make the connection as to what changed, and then I realized the changes happened once I added the MBO! How exciting! Blessings to you. I use them all the time for everything now.

MBOs IN A HOSTILE ENVIRONMENT

Richard writes: I have found that I can ask for an MBO to remember to ask for and MBO. I am retraining my brain circuitry to default to asking for the MBO, instead of worrying. this may seem small, but for me, it isn't.

I had a supervisor who was a diversity hire. She hated veterans [like me], treated them badly. Let's just say that it was unpleasant, for a while. I thought hard work and great service would fix it. Not in her case. Well, I kept saying MBOs to make it to my full retirement date, which I did do. She caused me more trouble- of course. She trashed other staff that left the office, also, as well as staff that stayed. Well... she was federal. WAS. Her position was cut, under DOGE, and she's gone. In the past our previous supervisors had extensive experience, were wise, understood the programs, appreciated excellence, etc. She was a diversity hire. Every one of her staffers was glad to see her go. I don't wish ill on anyone, I just do MBOs to stay out of their field of vision. I am not rejoicing that she's gone, but I'm also not sorry she's gone. Other remaining staff were ecstatic she's gone. She trashed every veteran who ever worked for her, and others. I will say this- that woman made me study your Gentle Way books, and apply everything I could figure out from them.

BPs FOR DAUGHTER & SON-IN-LAW'S DRIVE

We suddenly got the news from our daughter that our son-in-law's father had transitioned in Georgia. He was going to drive by himself from Plano Texas to Georgia, so we offered to keep our granddaughter for the week so that our daughter could help drive and assist in clearing out the houseboat he and his wife lived in and work to get her admitted to an assisted living place.

I requested BPs for their drive to Georgia and back along with hotel stays and packing up the houseboat, along with him seeing his dad one more time before cremation. We also requested MBOs for our granddaughter's stay with us.

So far, everything is working out well.

BPs FOR TOWN IMPROVEMENT

Richard writes: There was a really junky area in the town I formerly lived in. There were 2 derelict houses, and this was the center of town, sort of. I decided that I was going to clean it up, so I did my MBO thing, put in fountains of love, and so on. I've discovered I can MBO any spiritual method... it seems to work. Within 6 months, the town came together- to create a park there- at no cost to the town. I helped the volunteer crew that demolished one of the derelict houses. I lent my books on Japanese gardens to the designer, who had a sort of Zen rock garden idea at the center, with low stone walls. So many townspeople came together to make that place happen. That place is gorgeous. They do celebrations there. This was some years ago. The park is actually being improved. If you want to see it, you can- it is just west of the intersection of Route 189, and Route 20, maybe a mile north of the CT border, in MA. I haven't lived in the area for 24 years, but I go back, rarely, just to see how it has improved. I requested MBOs, for continual transmutation/improvement of the energies, and it seems to be happening. Of course all this could have just happened by coincidence. Naaaah. It is a small town, of course, where people still help each other, as it was in the old days, where people are more cooperative.

About Tom T. Moore: In 2005, Tom and Dena signed up for a seminar put on by Dick Sutphen to improve one's psychic ability. Tom decided to try and contact an American Indian Shaman that Robert Shapiro channeled for him named "Reveals the Mysteries," while in an altered state. He was successful, and was informed that he was a Shaman living at the same time period in the mid-1600s named "Still Water" and was told he had decided to incarnate in the 20th century to "reintroduce people to The Gentle Way." He received the name of the first book in The Gentle Way series the first time he communicated with his Shaman pal, who is now his main Guide. He was told to write "BOOKS!" and so he wrote the first The Gentle Way book in only 90 days.

He began asking questions, first of Reveals the Mysteries and then his own Guardian Angel Theo, and Gaia, soul of the Earth. Each time he would ask how his reception was progressing, he was told "Practice, Practice, Practice." It helped that when he started a weekly newsletter questions that he never would have thought to ask were sent in by subscribers.

In 2008, Theo introduced him to a member of his soul group or "cluster," an ET named Antura. Antura is part of a "first contact" team specializing in making contact with evolving societies. Tom asked Antura hundreds of questions over the next few years, which resulted in his fourth book, FIRST CONTACT: Conversations with an ET. Just before he sent the manuscript to his publisher, Antura informed him that he and his family would be visiting their huge mothership, with a crew of 900, in 2017 to shoot the first documentary on board an ET ship. This date has slipped to 2023.

Additionally, in 2008, Tom was told that in a past Atlantean life he was "inspired" to create The Gentle Way, and 200 years before they destroyed themselves in a horrific war, he led 25,000 people to resettle in Egypt. Again, he asked hundreds of questions about Atlantis and Lemuria, resulting in his book ATLANTIS & LEMURIA: The Lost Continents Revealed! that was published in 2015. And since then Tom has published many more books. Check out his website.

How To Be Your Best Self By Guy Finley

First Key Lesson: We are not being called to be more than we are, let alone to judge ourselves when we see we have missed the mark; rather, we are here to discover ALL that we have been given, and how – if we dare accept this unimaginable gift – we will see it multiplied a hundredfold.

Second Key Lesson: Our awareness of any yet-to-be perfected character in our consciousness IS NOT a judgment made by the Light that has made us aware of it.

FOR FURTHER STUDY

To Attain the Unattainable

Almost every day I receive a letter, an e-mail, or phone call from an aspirant who wants to know, essentially, the following: "What must I do to succeed spiritually?" Or, in a slight variation on that theme: "What's the right way to do what I must in order to awaken?"

There's little doubt as to the sincerity of these questions; but the problem is this: true spirituality is not something that can be attained through "doing" whatever one imagines; there is no "right way" to follow if one wants real freedom. It's important you see these truths for yourself. If it is authentic newness of heart that one longs for – an uncorrupted, uncompromised mind that responds effortlessly to the demands of the moment – then all images of such a life must be thrown away, died to, as clearly they belong to "what was." To model oneself after anything, or anyone, is to imitate; but if nothing else is clear, this should be:

The Divine Life -- as it expresses itself in the presence moment – is inimitable. Which means we are either present to that Life – being moment-to-moment what we are given to be (and see about life) through that Light – or... we have the all-too familiar alternative: the endless questions about "What one must do in order to be (free)?"

Asking ourselves "What must we do in order to be?"... is not unlike the eye asking what it must do to be able to see! And though somewhat unavoidable for many years along the path, such questions must eventually be outgrown. This gradual spiritual maturity is something that happens quite naturally as we awaken to see (in the present moment) that all of these pressing questions of ours (about what is the right thing to do or be) are secretly double-edged swords: one side is the endless hope of becoming someone special through the pursuit of an imagined ideal; the other side is the growing realization that comparing ourselves to any spiritual ideal doesn't liberate us; rather it imprisons us in the painful illusion that a comparative mind can transcend its own captivity.

Again, the true spiritual life is incomparable; nothing comes before now, nothing follows it.

Dare to be and see just what you are; give yourself to that task wholeheartedly... and for your willing entrance into the whole estate of yourself, you will realize the unattainable life you seek.

ROC Metaphysical Book Review

Intuitive Tarot For Beginners By Gloria Thayer

** Editor's Note: Gloria Thayer is a name that is at the heart of the metaphysical community. She has owned and operated metaphysical stores, taught classes on a variety of metaphysical subjects, makes her own special incenses and runs two very highly used Facebook pages that help promote metaphysical/spiritual connection and events.

Gloria has written her second book, this one is about Intuitive Tarot. This was a class that she taught for years and I actually took the class. She helped us newbies who were a bit intimidated by knowing all the cards, their meaning and recognizing the intuitive piece so it would make sense for the client. She helped us realize that anyone can work with Tarot if you allow yourself to be open, forget being overwhelmed and have fun.

Now years later she has taken all that teaching and her years of understanding Tarot producing a great book to help others.

Intuitive Tarot for Beginners is a practical and empowering guide designed to help newcomers master tarot through intuition and experience. The book provides foundational teachings, tools, and exercises that build confidence and deepen understanding of the cards. Readers learn to connect intuitively, interpret symbols, ask effective questions, and dispel common tarot myths. Step by step, it leads you toward self-discovery, spiritual growth, and a meaningful connection with the wisdom and magic of the tarot.

Maddie B By Richard Hughson

Maddie was bright, inquisitive, beautiful, and charming. She was in love with everything and everyone, and stole people’s hearts away just by being in their presence.

To me, there always seemed to be a look in her eye which said, “All of this is nice, but there’s something more.” No matter how much I focused on her, I had no further insights.

Leukemia steals your life away, especially the most difficult kind. Maddie got sick at age 5.

Other than a couple of very carefully crafted trips home, and only for a couple of days, she lived in the hospital for over a year.

Have you ever seen someone so pale and tired that they could not hold their head up? But when you ask them, “How do you feel?” They would manage a smile and give you two thumbs up? That was Maddie, always.

I don’t know how many times she was near death, way too many for her parents to smile through. Santa visited her by video call on one of her good days. She showed off that she could put her foot behind her head. Santa gave a valiant effort to follow along. She smiled. She always smiled.

The note came from her mother. “If ever there was a time to pray, it’s now.”

I don’t know how long I sat there. At some point I perceived an image of her as a young woman, mid-twenties and in perfect health. As she approached I was given to understand, “That was the plan all along.” She came here to love everyone and have everyone fall in love with her, then go home — leaving hearts broken open by love.

There were a thousand or more people at her funeral, and her name lives on even today. She did her job well and somehow, underneath it all, she knew it. No matter how sick she got, no matter the ravages of the disease or the chemo, she smiled and gave a thumbs up. She fulfilled her spiritual job. ## Tarot Tendencies For November By Doreen Scanlan

Start out this month on Samhain (Halloween) weekend by releasing anything that you no longer want to carry into the new year and new month. Then step into the newness of what is ahead with a sense of freedom from past burdens.

Start looking forward to the new things you want to explore. Try a new activity or better yet one you used to do that you have neglected. The page of cups invites you to find ways to express your passion. He invites you to learn something new. Maybe it is time to sign up for that class you have been putting off. Or maybe take an advanced class in something you are already doing.

The 8 of swords suggests that you stop telling yourself you can't and just try. New year, new levels of expression.

What Can Sound Healing Do For You?

Take a break, listen to the video, relax and allow the music to take you into a relaxing state.

And although sound healing has grown in popularity in recent years, it is a healing modality that dates way back. From vocal chanting to instruments such as Tibetan singing bowls, shamanic drums, and more, you will find some form of sound healing in every culture on Earth. According to historical records sound healing can be traced back 40,000 years to when indigenous Australians used ancient didgeridoos for healing. Did you know that there is healing sound chambers in the Egyptian pyramids?

4 benefits of sound healing

1. It's super-relaxing

Deep relaxation is one of the most significant and universal benefits of sound therapy. "The sounds permeate our system returning it back into harmony. So if you take nothing else away from a sound healing session, relaxation on its own is worth it. With our busy schedules and so much going on in the world, we can all use some chill vibes.

2. It helps clear energetic blockages

Some people experience deep healing during sound therapy as the sound vibrations open, clear, and balance their chakras and release stuck energy. It can be described as an "energetic deep tissue massage" that leaves you feeling balanced and replenished.

3. It boosts your health

That's right—it's not completely woo-woo. Research has already demonstrated that sound healing can be incredibly beneficial in many aspects of the physical body and beyond.

Benefits can include improved sleep, reduction of chronic pain and blood pressure, lowered cholesterol, and a decreased risk of heart disease.

4. It supports mental, emotional, and spiritual well-being

It also heals on the mental and emotional levels. Sound healing helps reduce stress, anxiety, and depression. It balances and clears the mind, and leads to a renewed sense of purpose, well-being, calm, and happiness.

Learn about 432 hertz.

The history of the 432 Hz frequency goes back far into antiquity. Even in ancient cultures such as the Egyptians, Sumerians and Greeks, special vibration frequencies were considered sacred. The number 432 has a special meaning in many of these cultures. It stands for the natural cycles of the earth and the cosmos.

The famous Greek philosopher and mathematician Pythagoras played a crucial role in the discovery of the 432 Hz frequency. He recognized the harmonious relationships between numbers and tones and developed the Pythagorean tuning, which used 432 Hz as the fundamental frequency. Pythagoras believed that this frequency had a profound effect on the human psyche and contributed to spiritual development.

The symbolism of the 432 Hz frequency extends to the present day. The number 432 is closely linked to the number 9, as  $4 + 3 + 2 = 9$ . The number nine is considered a symbol of completion and spiritual awakening in many spiritual traditions. The 432 Hz frequency is believed to create a harmonious balance with the natural rhythms of the universe and thus has profound spiritual significance.

There's all kinds of sound healing on the internet and loads of people who offer sound healing or sound baths where you live. Try it, you'll love it.

Take some me time and listen to the video.

The Finish Line - November 2025 By Emmanuel Dagher

Dear Friend,

We are in a pivotal moment in humanity's awakening journey, one that is changing the landscape of our personal and global reality forever.

The Completions of a 9-Year Era

As 2025 ( $2 + 0 + 2 + 5 =$  a 9 year) begins to wind down, the most heightened aspects of this year's numerical influence are being turbocharged, quickly shifting and preparing us for a brand new 9-year era of change, growth, and transformation.

Since 9 represents the frequencies of completion, reflection, and service, the next few months will be mainly focused on those areas.

You've probably noticed these themes, especially endings or completions, showing up in a big way this year, both in the outer world and in your own life.

With times of Universal completions and endings, we are always asked to fully face and resolve any unfinished business in any areas of our lives that need tending to.

These include the areas of health, relationships, and patterns of behavior, including how we treat ourselves.

The last few months of a 9 Universal Year are often the most intense, because we are being nudged to quickly finish everything that needs to be completed from the past 9 years, before the new 9-year era begins.

During a 9 Universal Year, we often notice some stagnancy when it comes to accepting change, such as hesitancy about starting a new project, job, or relationship, or moving to a new location.

If this is happening in your life, know that it is also happening all over the planet!

We are being given the space to finish with the old before we begin with the new.

Here is a practical invitation that can be supportive at this time: Choose one area that keeps asking for your attention, and bring it to completion in a clean and loving way.

This could be a boundary that needs to be set, a conversation that needs to happen, a habit that's ready to be released, or a commitment that's ready to be honored.

One completed action clears more energetic bandwidth than 10 unfulfilled intentions.

Completion is not about perfection. It is about integrity.

Once we bring everything current and up to date, our energy stops leaking into the past. We feel clearer, lighter, and more available for authentic creation.

Even small completions done consistently will build the inner momentum you have been asking for.

2025 has been a highly karmic year, in which we have been experiencing the karma of the actions we've taken over the last 9 years.

Think back to what was occurring in your life in 2016, and you may notice some similar themes are coming up in your life now. Some of these themes may feel wonderful, and some, not so much.

This is not a coincidence. This is clear feedback that indicates which energies, patterns, and outer situations you need to address now.

Think back to 2017. Did you start a new job or project? Did you move somewhere new or begin a new relationship that year?

Can you remember the tone of your mindset that year?

You may have decided inwardly, *Things are going to start changing for me now, in positive ways.

That was because 2017 was a 1 year, and it set the tone for the current 9-year era that we are about to complete now.

If things are not feeling so wonderful for you right now, view it as an opportunity to learn the lessons you set out to learn long ago on a higher level.

You are being given the chance to let go and move on now, so that you no longer need to repeat those lessons.

If everything is feeling wonderful for you right now, it means that over the last 9 years, you intentionally set a positive course for your life that is now being reflected back to you in real and meaningful ways.

The next two months are very important, because they are giving us the opportunity to be completely finished, once and for all, with whatever we are ready to move beyond.

It will be increasingly harder to operate in a victim consciousness now, because we are being called to action, to finish the challenges we began long ago.

A simple way to work through this, is to close each day by asking what you can address, complete or resolve, before you sleep.

Then decide that when you awaken in the morning, you will take one step toward that completion.

Send the message. Apologize where needed. Release what you do not intend to carry. Your future self will thank you for every door you close with grace.

A Time of Service

A 9 Universal Year is also a year of service.

We all know what it's like when the mind gets too caught up in itself. This can also be referred to as being too self-involved.

Being constantly self-involved is an indicator that the mind is operating in survival mode to the degree that it is unable to see the bigger picture in life.

We do not need to judge self-involvement as either good or bad. Yet it's important to realize that if we remain in that space for long periods of time, it keeps our energies limited and stagnant, keeping us from feeling expansive and in the flow of life.

Adding more acts of selfless service into our lives helps remedy limitation and stagnancy. This kind of giving can open up the areas of health, wealth, and overall happiness.

Service to others is also one of the most effective things we can do to balance and resolve old karmic debts.

If you are experiencing the results of karmic debts in your life, such as in the areas of health, financial wealth, and inner fulfillment, this would be the perfect time for you to dive into the energy of service to others.

Whenever you offer any kind of helpful service to others, higher energies of love and compassion flow powerfully through you.

Over the next two months, those energies will be magnified many times over, because of the highly potent moment of completion we are now in.

Service does not have to be dramatic to be meaningful. Make it specific and consistent. Check on a neighbor. Share a resource. Mentor someone who is a few steps behind you. Donate time or funds to a cause that matters to you. When service is personal and steady, it rewires your inner state from scarcity to sufficiency.

Notice what happens in your body when you give without trying to get something back. The breath deepens. The mind softens. A natural warmth rises within.

This is your system confirming that generosity is health-promoting.

Serving well is not self-neglect; it is a form of self-respect that includes others.

If you feel depleted, pair service with strong care for yourself.

Nourish your sleep. Feed your body real food. Keep your word to yourself. Service has the greatest impact when it flows from a steady center.

You are not here to rescue anyone. You are here to contribute what is yours to give with clarity and kindness.

I invite you to give yourself a weekly Renewal Ritual for November.

Choose one day of the week to sit quietly for 10 minutes, and each week on that day, ask three questions:

- 1. What issue has already been completed?*
- 2. What issue still needs my honest attention?*
- 3. How can I be of real service to myself and others this week?*

Then anchor it in your body. Place a hand over your heart, breathe gently into your belly, and let your shoulders soften so all aspects of you feel safe.

Write one concrete completion for the week, one loving boundary or repair if needed, and one simple act of service you will offer.

This keeps you grounded, clears emotional residue, and opens the path for grace to move through your health, relationships, creativity, and prosperity as we close this era with clarity.

Preparing for a Brand New 9-Year Era

You may be noticing certain forms of stagnancy in your life, especially as you desire to release the past while beginning new relationships or creative endeavors, or moving to a new home.

If you begin doing the inner healing work needed to resolve any old blockages, pains, or grudges you may have, while being in service to others in some way, things will begin shifting powerfully for you as we move into 2026.

That is because the new year will offer us something extraordinary.

It will give us the opportunity to embrace and step into the person that, deep down, we have always known ourselves to be.

Now is the time to answer a few powerful questions, such as:

- What would you like to create more of in your life?
- What behaviors are you ready to let go of?
- How will you treat yourself after you have committed to more self-love?
- How will you treat others, and allow them to treat you, once you have committed to offering more loving support to them and to yourself?
- What are some extra things you can add to your daily or weekly schedule, no matter how small, that promote having more love, happiness, freedom, balance, wholeness, gratitude, wonder, kindness, miracles, and prosperity in your life and in the world?

We can begin asking and answering these questions now, in preparation for creating our happiest and most fulfilling life, as we begin a brand new 9-year era in 2026. (A “1” year, as  $2 + 0 + 2 + 6 = 10$ , which reduces to 1.)

A helpful structure for this preparation is to choose one theme per month and one practice per day.

For example, November could be completion with a daily practice of 10-minute tidy-ups, and December could be connected with a daily practice of one sincere outreach.

Simple, repeatable actions build the new era on solid ground.

Clarity loves a plan. Create a short, written vision for the first quarter of 2026 that names what you are creating, why it matters to you, and how you will begin.

Keep it where you can see it. Review it each week. Adjust it as you learn what needs refining.

Let your vision be flexible rather than rigid, so it can welcome the richness of life as it unfolds.

This is a time to let go of the firm grip we have had on the things we’ve been attached to for so long that are no longer serving us or those around us.

This is the time to let go, and to simply let ourselves be.

It will serve us well to do so. It will be much easier to do this now, instead of moving into the new 9-year era while still holding on to what belongs in the past.

If you are reading this forecast, take it as your confirmation that you are willing to let go of any lingering attachments to what is no longer aligned with your highest good.

Be comforted by just that alone, and trust that you are exactly where you are meant to be on your sacred journey.

Let November be the month you close open loops, tell the truth kindly, forgive what can be forgiven, and release what is complete.

As you do, space opens. That space is not empty.

It is filled with joy, peace, prosperity, and readiness. It is the ground from which the next era of your life will take root

Until next time,
With gratitude,
Emmanuel

Are Angels Real? By Kryon/Lee Carroll

Lee Carroll has moved to technology as his primary way of sharing his knowledge and information. Here is one of his recent videos below.

About Lee Carroll: After graduating with a business and economics degree from California Western University in California, Lee Carroll started a technical audio business in San Diego that flourished for 30 years.

As an award winning audio engineer, where does channelling and Indigo children fit into all this? As Lee tells it, Spirit had to hit him "between the eyes" to prove his spiritual experience was real. The year 1989 was the turning point when finally came together, after some years earlier a psychic told him about his spiritual path and then three years later the second unrelated psychic told him the same thing! Both spoke of Kryon... a name that almost nobody had ever heard.

Timidly, the first writings were presented to the metaphysical community in Del Mar, California, and the rest is history - with a total of sixteen metaphysical books being released in a twelve-year span. There are now almost one million Kryon and Indigo books in print in over twenty eight languages worldwide. Lee continues to visit other countries regularly see it here.

Lee and his spiritual partner, Jan Tober, started the "Kryon light groups" in Del Mar in 1991 and quickly moved from a living-room setting, to a Del Mar church. The Kryon organization now hosts meetings all over the globe with audiences of up to 3,000 people.

Embrace Uncertainty By Kate Spreckley

At times it may feel like we are on an emotional roller coaster of sorts. One moment feeling the expansiveness of the times we are in, and the knowing that all that unfolding has purpose, and then in the next dropping into the depths of old wounds and patterns where hope and motivation seem lacking. This can create feelings of listlessness and emotional fatigue as we wonder whether our efforts have any real effect, or even if we are moving in the right direction.

These are intense and emotionally disorientating times which requires patience and trust. We cannot accomplish what needs to be accomplished by forcing anything or trying to rush solutions. There is an internal sorting process happening that at times may feel and look chaotic, but is in actuality enabling us to process and integrate what is being released and what is being birthed. This process involves letting go of old perspectives, beliefs, and aspects of our self-identity that no longer serve a purpose. It can be painful and disorientating and yet, despite the discomfort as the old self is released, space is created for the new to emerge. This birthing is an intense, creative and transformative experience which will ultimately culminate in a changed, and more empowered version of ourself.

As you move through this time embrace uncertainty. Recognize that life is non-linear and that periods of confusion are a natural part of growth. Rather than feeling shame or blame for the turmoil understand that it is a necessary part of the major life transition you are moving through. Accept that what is occurring is a much needed catharsis of the undercurrents of your emotional world, which is needed for you to find motivation and direction. Allow the purging to happen as it is what will amplifying your intuition and bring a new coherent vision.

Much love

What We Will See In The Future

By Geoff Hindmarch

082 325 6889

Geoff@SpiritualDictionary.com

For those who are Ready to Learn www.SpiritualDictionary.com

Geoff is being shown some of the nice changes coming up through “Instant understanding”

Geoff: Why there is going to be far less vehicles are because there won't be so much important exports. People will be living on the food which is in their particular country but eventually that food is going to be in their particular area. So people won't need to travel so much. You won't need the big trucks to travel backwards and forwards but also people themselves because they'll be changing towards nature and that automatically gives them a very negative view of the combustion engine, and all these sorts of things. A lot will change over to bicycle, electric scooters, bikes and cars.

But not very big ones, but just very practical ones. Because they're not going to go very far. So you won't need big cars anymore, just be very comfortable. Because the weather of course is going to be a lot nicer, because of the change, because of the energy. You've going to be a lot more nature, people will not travel so far, people will be a lot happier, they will have more time to look around and so they might want to just buy cars to get from one place to another very quickly. So that is going to be quite a change. And there will be another thing. What they show me is like a flying seat. Imagine an ordinary plastic chair. but one made of proper material and then on top of that you've got something that looks like a cross between a drone and a helicopter.

It looks like a single helicopter and you sit in it – you've got a hand control, to just go up and along and so the traveling is not so much by vehicles. You can use this to travel anywhere along virtual roads, but people won't be speeding so much because it won't be that important to get there on time. It's more of you know take your time look at the view and so on.

That's just a very neat thing. No big blades on the top, but a mixture of little blades five six seven little rotary blades driven by solar. Solar will be the same as the microchip, every two years it gets twice as powerful.

What you've got now is solar panels and wind farms, and as new technology develops, those will get better and better. So your solar, it's just a matter of being able to gather more and more energy. What I'm seeing is, if you can imagine ten sheets of glass each a few inches apart and each one has a hole in it in a different place. so sunlight will go through the top one and then through the hole in the second one and change direction and go through the third one and the fourth one all the way down. And what it does on the way down is it creates a bit of heat in multiple ways. One beam of sunshine will catch multiple different mirrors if you can understand that. And that's all it needs to create enough lift to lift these things and move them around. So it stores electricity but that's the way it does it. That's very neat.

Right, they are saying you can go to the distant future, but this is not going to be for a while yet. We are going to Farms next. We are seeing a track going up to a building that has got bales of hay on this side of it. So it looks like a farm. And at the back there are many fields. Now, what do they want there? I am going to go down into the farm itself. This is a modern type farm; it is not full of cow dung and mud like a normal farm. There are no animals there, this is just food, vegetables, and what has been set up is automation. These are lots of different types of machinery and robots are assembled, but they're not made of steel. The reason they are not made of steel is because it is very alien to nature. So they are made from things like cork and rubber, highly condensed versions, and they will be able to work 24 hours a day if needed. So they'll be able to produce far better vegetables because they'll have built in sensors. They can tell what is growing when where, what stage they're at, etc.

They can work 24 hours a day. They can work non-stop. So they can produce vegetables much better, cheaper, but they can produce them more to perfection because they've got these sensors on literally everything. They will also monitor the ecosystem around the farm because you've got to have the right balance of nature to get the right thing in the stores, the right water is running through, all sorts of different nutrients coming down rivers into land and so on. There's an awful lot to it. But if you have all these sensors around a particular farm or group of farms, then it's much easier to keep things in a 100% condition. Also the weather of course as we know is going to be a lot better, it's going to be far more controllable. But having these robots doing all the collecting and the sorting and looking after the plants, so that the plants get more loved in a way. It's all TLC. And then the farmers simply look after the whole project. And when it comes to harvesting, that's all automated as well. Harvested by this equipment, all automated, it comes into the farm where it's basically just supervised. There are all sorts of different vats, machinery, packaging, cleaning, freezing, all sorts. It's all in there. It's literally all automated. And so it's producing this very good, high quality food, nourishing food, that can be purchased by the locals, it can be sent off to the nearest shops at a very very reasonable price. That's what everybody wants. There won't be so much value placed on big businesses, property etc. That will basically be shunned.

You want big business because big business will create, develop and so on. Yeah. But there won't be this competition. Those that are just in it for the money will just fade away.

That's very nice. Now let me see if I can see animals. Animals are a huge negative. You have got cows of course for milk. I am looking I don't see any.

With new technology, and they're already working on this at the moment, they're making simulated meat. But they're making it basically through as much natural means as they can, but it's in a very basic format at the moment. What they're able to establish, if you take something like bacon for example, they know exactly how it tastes, how much fat, what content is in there, what protein etc. So all they have to do is replicate the flavour and all the nutrients. They can do that, they know exactly what that is. But what they've got to do is find the right material to replicate that so it's suitable for what we think it should taste like.

And they said they'll find that because you've got so many different herbs, spices and so on, You know vegetarians will have cakes Patties made out of soy and all sorts of things. And that's just going to get better and better. It hasn't really progressed because the vegetarian movement hasn't taken off that much. So it's not sort of worldwide, it's just in little groups.

But now it's going to start, they're going to create better and better. And of course having all this automated stuff around is very easy to get the perfect recipe and just recreate that recipe, keep on recreating it.

That will be easy using AI and automation. So you have meat but the main thing is going to be vegetables and fruit. That's simply going to taste so much better.

Even that manufactured version will be better than the hormonal version because the fear and all the energies from the animals that we are eating, will be removed, and will not be passed on either.. So even if they make it as natural as possible, but even eating whatever toxicity is left in there is still better for us, for the human body.

So all the experiments that have been done with food and genetic engineering, has all been in the last 20, 30, 40 years. You know when you think how food has changed that much, it has changed to a chemical poisonous type product. And that's all got to be reversed.

Cats and dogs in a new world. They are going to be a lot different. They're going to be happier because there's less negativity around. There are so many things that relate to negativity, and they can sense negativity.

Besides cats and dogs, horses, etc. All your plants, your plant life, nature. You can feel it. So, it's giving a nice change there. You see, if only humans had known this years ago, a lot of things would have changed, but that's how you evolve, that's how you learn.

I see I have gone to chickens and ducks and they are saying the same thing. It's going to be seen so differently as people change. It's not gonna happen straight away, but this is in 20 years or so time. Rats and mice are considered vermin because they come into homes and buildings looking for food. So in the future what you've got is you've got nature on a far better scale. So there's more than enough food out in nature. So there's no need to come into a city. Now what's going to change their thinking about this is basically the negative energy we were talking about. In the city you've got this negative energy and what you've got beckoning you outside the city is this beautiful new nature energy with loads of natural food. So let's go live there, it's so much better. And that's exactly what's going to happen. And nature of course will help balance everything out there because you've got to have the balance of the predators and so on, even in nature. That's very neat. I wonder if I could do spiders?

Sharon: No you can't send spiders to another planet, Grandpa.

Geoff: Spiders can become friendly, that will suit me. So to finish off, what I've got on the right hand side is basically a city, which is getting smaller and smaller, it's getting more and more empty and unkempt and dirty and so on. Nature outside is just blooming, it's getting bigger and better, beautiful energy. So that means more people now want to go and live literally in the country. They want to live where there is more nature rather than in a city. They follow the energy. Now the main reason of being in a city is because you've got all the businesses there and you go to work in the city.

Then you've got all the facilities that you need, all the businesses congregate and that's what makes up a city. So normally you have a central city and then you have suburbs. So when you don't have to work so much, so many more people are going to be working from home. So these whole cities will start to basically dissolve and what you end up with is basically hubs as you were discussing last year. So you get a community and there is just enough supply there to keep everybody happy in the community. So just imagine this, wouldn't you enjoy having your own little plot where you can grow your own vegetables, where dogs can run around but also where you've got a market up the road where you can go and meet all your friends and you can do all your shopping in the market and everybody shares in that particular area because you're supporting the local community. Very nice energy, everybody's very friendly. Do you need any more than that?

Okay. Now I have just got one more area. I am seeing a valley, and one hill which is going down into a valley and up the other side. It is full of bush, but the bush is old, dried up. It has not seen rain for a long time, not in good condition at all. Dry leaves on the ground.

am right in the middle of all of this bush, and I am looking out to the horizon, I can see all this beautiful, lovely energy, all these bright colours and sunshine, birds flying and I get them in this dirty old bush.

I'm trying to find out what the significance is. Oh, balance, okay. You've always got to have a little bit of balance. Even in nature you've got to have a little bit of balance so everybody can see what the difference is – it's not just a matter of nature picking it up it's all literally animals insects people everybody has to see this little bit of negativity so they can appreciate the quality of what else there is. .... And that's where we're going to leave it for tonight.

About Geoff Hindmarch: I am so lucky. My life has been understanding Spiritualism. My parents and wife were all mediums, my daughter still is. Whenever I tuned in to the other side, there were always Teachers and Guides waiting to show me something new. Sometimes I would travel through different dimensions – often the past and occasionally the future. What I learnt and experienced was beyond my wildest imagination. On this site, you can share these adventures, and you will find them hard to believe. I experienced them and understood them. And with each new adventure I understood that there were fewer and fewer people that I would be able to discuss them with. I met some beautiful souls during this period. When you meet a soul on the other side you have an instant understanding of who they are – but you see and sense right into their inner being and experience the huge amount of love that they have to give – and their willingness to help and teach. It is a very humbling experience.

Books That Are a Must Read!

The Witches of Riegersburg by JA Stratton

-- For fans of The Da Vinci Code and historical intrigue, The Witches of Riegersburg is an unforgettable ride through time, magic, and resilience.

This gripping novel spans three timelines, following three extraordinary women bound by an ancient Goddess faith and a mysterious Book of Shadows. Baroness Elisabeth von Galler faces the hysteria of 1665 European witch trials, protecting her family and faith under the shadow of persecution. Fast forward to 1938, Katarina Lilienthal uses the same ancient wisdom to navigate the horrors of Nazi Austria and save her Jewish family. Finally, in the present day, Sarah Lilienthal inherits the Book of Shadows and embarks on a soul-searching journey to Austria, unearthing her family's secrets and her own identity.

Julie Anne Stratton masterfully weaves history, magic, and mythology into a story that's as empowering as it is thrilling. The characters are richly drawn, and the stakes—whether facing witch trials, World War II, or personal discovery—are as high as they come.

I'm Lee Parker and I started really liking rocks fairly late in life. I have been selling rocks for over 15 years. I worked with stones cutting and polishing so I have learned so much about stones, their character and composition. If you are looking for perfect stones I can recommend that many with their natural imperfections make them perfect. Visit my site and find me on Facebook where I post pictures and videos of rocks for sale. You can find me at many rock shows and fairs around New York and Pennsylvania. Call if you have questions and I'll talk about rocks to make sure you get what you like for sure.
