

The Eastern Avenue Pump Station

You will find the Public Works Experience in a working pump station on the Jones Falls River in Harbor East, one of Baltimore's fastest growing downtown neighborhoods.

Built in 1915, the Pump Station continues to operate incognito – critical infrastructure for the city's public and environmental health, within a beautiful historic landmark. Our location is its own Public Works story!

Public Works are Amazing!!!

What are Public Works???

Modern communities depend on vital public services every day, but people rarely think about them until something breaks...

Imagine daily life without:

Safe drinking water

Sturdy roads, bridges, and tunnels

Sanitation for healthy people and planet

Dependable power and internet
