

INTRODUCING

Mirline Valentin

Producer, Director, Assistant Film Commissioner, Business Owner

About Me

I am a Producer and Production Manager

I am a praying mother who loves researching, organizing, and developing marketing strategies for companies as well as telling stories through film; with the goal of becoming owning and running a production company.

Fun and Random Facts

MY FIRST CHILD WAS A SHIZHU.

Her name was Aaliyah and my daughters middle name is Maliyah.
She passed away in 2023 so now we have Charlie.

THIS IS MY FOURTH CAREER CHANGE

I was in the military, marketing, hospitality, and education fields prior to turning over to filmmaking. I am finishing masters in Entertainment Business at Fullsail University and taking my Project Management Certification PMP Exam.

I HAVE A HUGE OBSESSION WITH COWBOY BOOTS.

I started a collection from every state I visit. I currently have 7 pairs.

Where I'm From

I'M ORIGINALLY FROM FLORIDA CITY, FL

Florida City, FL is the last city of Miami-Dade County. I am of Haitian descent. My parents are both Haitian immigrants who settled in Florida in the early 80s. Out of 6 siblings, my sister and I are the only two born in the United States.

Who am I

SKILL AND QUALIFICATIONS

Military Influence

Military veteran possessing all the associated skill of integrity, loyalty, excellent analytical skills, detail-oriented, reliable, extremely organized, and self motivated with the discipline of task completion

Work Ethic

Over fifteen years of extensive leadership, marketing, and customer service experience, and two years experience in the film industry. Quickly master new procedures, methods, and new technology. Profound ability to manage time and resources efficiently; work well under pressure and/or time restraint; handle face-paced and busy work environments, as well as effectively manage and train employees.

Passion

My passion is educating others and encouraging them to seek deeper understanding for themselves. I enjoy taking a problem and developing a solution through research, organization, and planning.

The only two things that cannot be physically taken away from you are the knowledge in your head and the character in your heart.
Therefore you should never stop learning and always stand on your word.

What Inspires Me

THINGS THAT HELP ME GET THROUGH THE DAY

Nature

I love taking walks, camping, and being outdoors.
Connecting with nature brings me peace.

Meditation

I believe taking your time to meditate and take time to yourself helps realign my thoughts and actions.

Knowlegde & Wisdom

My motto is: the only things a person cannot physically take away from me is my pride and knowledge. I take pride in acquiring knowledge.

My Goals

Education

I have revised my plans and am now preparing to take my Project Management Certification exam. I'm taking a break from school, but I may eventually return to pursue a PhD or JD. Although my previous goal was to earn my MA, MS, MFA, and PhD by the age of 50, I remain a dedicated lifelong learner and may still achieve these academic milestones.

Personally

My goal is to become the best version of myself while being the best mother I can be. I am dedicated to personal growth and self-improvement, striving to achieve my full potential.

Film

I aspire to become a producer, director, and project manager for film and television. Additionally, I aim to work on documentaries, feature films, and live events.

Entrepreneurship

I aim to create multiple streams of passive and residual income through various business ventures while continually expanding my portfolio. I plan to establish a production company that emphasizes the importance of development and preproduction. Alongside this, I will manage businesses like a concierge service, a travel company, and authoring books. My focus on the importance of production will ensure meticulous planning and preparation across all my ventures, leading to greater success and impact.

Fun Goal

To purchase a pair of cowboy boots from every state I visit and hopefully one day have over 50.

My Passtime

I enjoy the preproduction of making digital content. I am a stickler for research. I want to understand every interesting concept so I tend to dig deeper for better understanding. I love arts and crafts, DIY, and building things with my hands. I own Jamardes Custom Creations where I make several different types of custom items.

Things I Do For Fun

Arts and Crafts, Cooking, Board Games

My Hobbies

WHAT I ENJOY DOING IN MY FREE TIME

Water Sports

I enjoy being on the water whether it is fishing, rowing, or camping near the river.

Horsback Riding

I communicate better with animals especially horses. Being around the farm and riding horses is therapeutic.

Amusement Parks

I am a big kid. I enjoy amusement parks but Disney has a special place in my heart.

Even More About Me

I love cake but not pies

I enjoy a good cake but I devour anything from Publix Bakery.

I briefly attended Law School

I attended Nova School of in 2012

I travel a lot.

Two things I love about visiting new places are the food and the history. I am an independant travel agent.

I obsessed with attaining knowlege

If you mention something that is interesting I will research it.

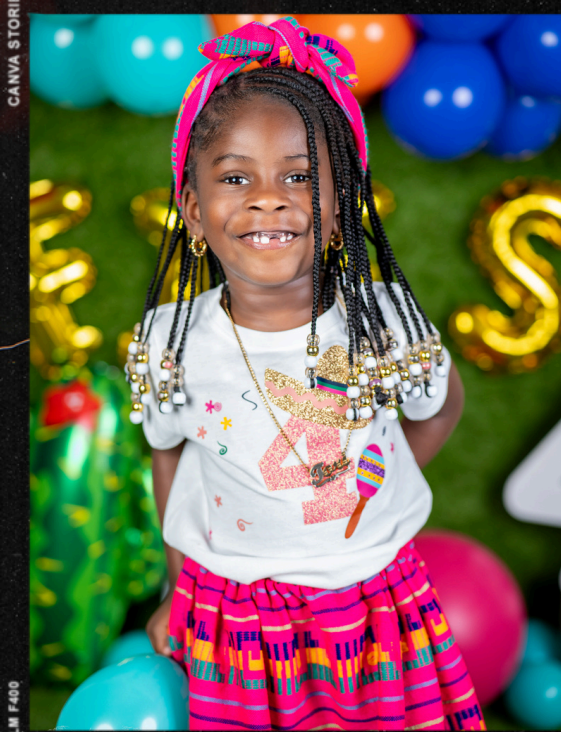

I am a Navy Veteran

I went in at 17 (in 2002) and was stationed in La Madelena, Italy.

My Entire World and reason why!

Princess Victoria Maliyah

I am Unapologetically Black

My confidence is my skin!
