Denver Police Arrest Suspects in Saturday Night Shooting on W. Colfax Ave.

Denver – Sunday, February 21, 2021 – On Saturday, February 20, 2021, at approximately 10:45 p.m., the Denver Police Department received a report of a shooting that occurred on westbound West Colfax Avenue at southbound I-25. The investigation revealed that the suspect(s) fired shots into a vehicle striking an adult female victim and fled the scene. The victim sustained several gunshot wounds and was transported to a local hospital where she remains in critical condition with life-threatening injuries.

This morning at approximately 12:15 a.m., Denver Police officers observed a vehicle matching the description of the suspect vehicle in this shooting. The suspect vehicle fled from officers and a vehicle pursuit was authorized. Officers conducted a PIT maneuver on the vehicle in the area of West Byers Place and South Tejon Street. Three suspects fled from the vehicle and were all taken into custody and following a systematic perimeter search.

One adult male and one juvenile male taken into custody during the perimeter search have been arrested and will be held for Investigation of Attempted First Degree Murder in relation to the shooting at W. Colfax/I-25. The determination regarding possible charges is pending for the third individual taken into custody.

The identity of the adult male suspect is not available at this time as the booking process has not been completed. DPD is prohibited from providing information regarding juvenile arrestees.

The investigation into this shooting is ongoing. Anyone with information regarding this incident is encouraged to call Crime Stoppers at (720) 913-STOP.
