

A BABY'S BILL OF RIGHTS

What Every Community Should Provide For Individual & Societal Thriving

- 1 Welcomed with naturalistic birth at full term
- 2 No induction pain at birth or in childhood (e.g. no punishment)
- 3 Infant-initiated suckling and breastfeeding (human milk) for several years
- 4 Playful, responsive relationships
- 5 Caregivers provide deep bonding and limbic resonance
- 6 Treated as an equally-important person
- 7 Mother/primary caregiver supported throughout life of child, from conception on
- 8 Nearly 24/7 positive touch
- 9 Embedded within the activities of a community 24/7
- 10 Community support to respect and meet basic needs
- 11 Opportunities for full sensory and intellectual development
- 12 Unfolding of child's unique spirit supported
- 13 Full autonomy as development allows
- 14 Deep contact with and modeled respect for Nature

The Title of a Program or Conference

The Evolved Nest

