A custom search engine built from the ground up to understand stamps and stamp collectors.

The image shows a screenshot of the Hipstamp website. The top navigation bar is white and contains the Hipstamp logo on the left, a search bar with the placeholder text "Search millions of stamp listings..." and a magnifying glass icon on the right, and links for "Sign In | Sign Up" and a shopping cart icon on the far right. Below the navigation bar is a horizontal menu with various regional categories: "United States", "Africa", "Asia", "Australia & Oceania", "British Commonwealth", "Canada", "Caribbean", "Europe", "Great Britain", "Central & South America", "Middle East", "Worldwide", and "More Categories" with a right-pointing arrow. To the right of these categories are links for "Stores" and "Auction Events". The main content area has a dark blue background with a faint image of hands holding stamps. It features a large white heading "For Collectors, By Collectors" and a subheading "Millions of listings from the most trusted stamp sellers in the world." Below this is a white search bar with the placeholder text "Complete your collection..." and a magnifying glass icon. At the bottom of the main content area, there is a section titled "Get started with a popular search:" followed by three light blue buttons with rounded corners: "US #1", "US #230-245", and "US #293".

The screenshot shows a web browser window with the URL `hipstamp.com/members/tools/eBay-sync`. The page has a navigation bar with links for SUMMARY, MESSAGES, BUYING, SELLING (highlighted), STORE, FEEDBACK, and MY ACCOUNT. The main content area is titled "Sync with eBay" and shows the status as "Enabled" for user "randoming36", with a "DISABLE" button. Below this, there is explanatory text about the sync feature and instructions for closing or updating listings. Two steps are provided: Step 1 involves downloading a file of recently sold listings, and Step 2 involves uploading a template. An "Advanced Settings" section includes a price adjustment tool (set to "Decrease" by "Percent" of "5.00"), and three checkboxes for "Default Shipping Only", "Always Enable Offers", and "Flag Sold Listings on Ebay". A "SAVE SETTINGS" button is at the bottom. A right-hand sidebar lists various settings categories, with "Seller Tools" and "Sync with eBay" highlighted.

Our Sync with eBay feature seamlessly keeps your inventory in sync with eBay, including automatically closing/ updating listings on HipStamp, when they sell on eBay. However, to close/ update items on eBay when they sell on HipStamp, please see the following:

Close/Update Your Listings on eBay that Recently Sold on HipStamp

We recommend repeating this process, which should take less than 30 seconds, at least once a week:

Step 1: Click this link to download a file of your recently sold listings on HipStamp (since last download: Sep 29, 2021 at 12am edt).
Step 2: Go to the eBay Seller Hub > Reports > Upload page, click the "Upload Template" button, and upload the above file.

» Advanced Settings

Adjust Prices by a of

Decrease the Price of each listing when imported by either a percent or fixed price from the original price. Note that prices will never be lowered to zero or under.

Default Shipping Only
Ignore shipping costs from Ebay, and only use the costs set in Default Listing Settings.

Always Enable Offers
Ignore enable offer settings from Ebay, and always enable offers on all synced listings.

Flag Sold Listings on Ebay
When an item is sold here, and you use the Close/Update feature, it will move to the Closed Listings section on eBay. This option additionally allows you to prepend the title on eBay with the characters [X]. If you regularly relist items on eBay from the Closed Listings section, you may find this option useful.
