Living in the Glory of God

What matters more than loving Christ with all our hearts and souls? Nothing. There is no greater purpose than living out Christ' prayer, "Thy kingdom come on earth as it is in heaven". As we love the Lord alone through the gift of purity, we will have less, if any, need for emotional consolation, ecstasy, or even a sense of peace. So deeply rooted are we in union with all souls that we are even willing to take on spiritual labor pains and agonies of others in the Spirit of conversion and reparation. Oh, but what a gift these pains, the labor pains, within our souls birthing others (through and with Mother Mary). Thank you, God, for "Counting us worthy to stand in your presence and serve you." How wonderful to live in the fertile glory of God each day as it is written in the Psalms, "I will walk before the Lord in the land of the Living" (Psalm 116.9).

Today, as we celebrate the feast day of Our Lady of Guadalupe, may our souls be transformed beyond measure by the potent image of "Our Lady Clothed in the Sun". May we all be as Mother Mary: an unyielding gift of "self", constant in creating, preserving, and sustaining life, immersed, dissolved, and absorbed in the Glory of God. Mother Mary, we thank you with all our hearts. And if we have not thanked you Sun for your warmth, enlightenment, and growth we thank you (and Our Lady) now on behalf of all mankind past, present, and future. May we all be as constant, productive, and humble as you.
