Residency Programs

Our high impact, custom-designed programs meet both the artistic and curricular objectives of each school. In sessions ranging from 5 to 32 visits, our resident artists lead students through rehearsing and performing a play. Recent programs include:

Social Studies: Neighborhoods Interactive: Our City, Our Neighborhoods (all grades)
Civics in Action (grades 1-5)

Science: Innovators: Scientists & Inventors (all grades)

Theatre Arts: Shakespeare on Stage (all grades)

English Language Arts: Playwriting (all grades)
Poem (all grades)
Folklore (grades 1-3)

Multidisciplinary: Moebius Project (grades 4-12)

Don’t see what you’re looking for? Contact us and tell us what you want in a custom program.

Interactive Workshop Series

Students guest star with two professional actors in their classroom as they present scenes to demonstrate the language, themes, and literary and theatrical devices of William Shakespeare. This signature series of in-class workshops is designed with several versions to make the text accessible to students of all ages and experience levels.

Available in:
Shakespeare Interactive Workshops (gr. 6-12)
Folklore Interactive Workshops (gr. 3-7)
Mythology Interactive Workshops (gr. 3-8)

& more

Grades 3-12 & beyond List Price $1100 for day of 5 Workshops

Macbeth

This depiction of the Thane of Glamis’ tragic thirst for power holds our natures up to the mirror created by live theatre and explores what makes us human. The Shakesperience Approach engages the actor and audience to explore Macbeth as a catalyst to discuss freedom of choice, ambition and greed, self-control, and allophilia - a positive attitude in regard to all groups of people.

Middle & High School List Price $1300

Macbeth

2019-2020

The Reluctant Dragon

A shepherd girl races against time and popular opinion to protect and defend her dragon friend from other villagers, St. George the knight, and certain destruction. Inspired by the art of René Magritte, a giant set of Cuisenaire® rods and colorful costumes serve this production as it highlights themes of stereotype and prejudice encapsulated in environmental sustainability.

Elementary List Price $1100

The Reluctant Dragon

The Sword in the Stone

With anti-bullying messages framed in the six pillars of character, Shakesperience employs a giant soma cube set with paintings inspired by J.M.W. Turner to show Arthur’s journey from obscurity to monarchy. Sorcerer Merlin and brother Kai help and guide him along the way as Arthur meets his destiny.

Elementary List Price $1100

The Sword in the Stone

Educational Tour

Sponsored in part by:

American Savings Foundation

Connecticut Community Foundation

The City of Waterbury
The David, Helen, & Marian Woodward Fund
The Leever Foundation
Savings Bank of Danbury
The DECD Office of the Arts
Shakespeare in the Park
Shakesperience Artistic Director Emily Mattina directs family-friendly adaptations of Shakespeare for summertime enjoyment and as a catalyst for community conversation.

The Comedy of Errors
Shakespeare in the Litchfield Hills
River Walk Pavilion, Washington Depot, CT
FREE (Suggested Donation $20)
August 7-11, 2019, 7:30pm nightly

The Gift of Peace
This production blends the best of our company for a deserving community. Join us for three stories of giving and togetherness this holiday season: The Gift of the Magi, Silent Night: The Christmas Eve Truce, and Holiday in Winterberry.
December 12, 7 PM
December 13, 10 AM & 7PM
December 14, 2PM & 7PM
December 15, 2PM

Acting Intensives
Our professional resident artists instruct students aged 7 to 17 in the Shakesperience Approach. Emphasizing a strong, disciplined ensemble, grounded in language and positive interaction, these Acting Intensives teach students to develop action and character through text and take ownership of the work. Long-term behaviors learned include literacy, public speaking, work ethic, and positive outlook, attitude and self-expression.
Tuition $300/session (scholarships available for low & moderate income families)
Private acting classes also available for all ages
January 5 - February 16 (Saturdays)
March 9 - April 27 (Saturdays)
July 29—August 2 (Daily in Washington Depot)
October 12 - December 7 (Saturdays)

School Tour - Public Tour
Acting Classes
Custom Art & Education Programs

www.shakesperience.org
203.754.2531

Neighborhoods!
Shakesperience’s Neighborhoods Program is a catalyst for human interaction across time and space. The connection implied in Neighborhoods goes beyond those people and ideas in our immediate vicinity and connects us through mood, culture, thought and experience. Involving a cast of professionals, students of all ages, and local celebrities, Neighborhoods brings stories of Waterbury and beyond to life. Join us for the culminating dinner event at historic Chase Collegiate School!
June 8, 2019
Contact us for tickets & information

A Voice of Leadership, Thought, and Action, Onstage and Off

Shakesperience's Neighborhoods Program is a catalyst for human interaction across time and space. The connection implied in Neighborhoods goes beyond those people and ideas in our immediate vicinity and connects us through mood, culture, thought and experience. Involving a cast of professionals, students of all ages, and local celebrities, Neighborhoods brings stories of Waterbury and beyond to life. Join us for the culminating dinner event at historic Chase Collegiate School!
June 8, 2019
Contact us for tickets & information

Shakespeare in the Park
Shakesperience Artistic Director Emily Mattina directs family-friendly adaptations of Shakespeare for summertime enjoyment and as a catalyst for community conversation.

The Comedy of Errors
Shakespeare in the Litchfield Hills
River Walk Pavilion, Washington Depot, CT
FREE (Suggested Donation $20)
August 7-11, 2019, 7:30pm nightly

The Gift of Peace
This production blends the best of our company for a deserving community. Join us for three stories of giving and togetherness this holiday season: The Gift of the Magi, Silent Night: The Christmas Eve Truce, and Holiday in Winterberry.
December 12, 7 PM
December 13, 10 AM & 7PM
December 14, 2PM & 7PM
December 15, 2PM

Acting Intensives
Our professional resident artists instruct students aged 7 to 17 in the Shakesperience Approach. Emphasizing a strong, disciplined ensemble, grounded in language and positive interaction, these Acting Intensives teach students to develop action and character through text and take ownership of the work. Long-term behaviors learned include literacy, public speaking, work ethic, and positive outlook, attitude and self-expression.
Tuition $300/session (scholarships available for low & moderate income families)
Private acting classes also available for all ages
January 5 - February 16 (Saturdays)
March 9 - April 27 (Saturdays)
July 29—August 2 (Daily in Washington Depot)
October 12 - December 7 (Saturdays)