

By-Laws of Scarborough Theatre Guild, Inc.

Approved by the Board, August 11, 2025

Approved by the Members, August 13, 2025

Section 1 – General

1.01 Definitions:

In this by-law, unless the context otherwise requires:

- a. “Act” means the Not-for-Profit Corporations Act, 2010 (Ontario) and, where the context requires, includes the regulations made under it, as amended or re-enacted from time to time;
- b. “Board” means the board of directors of the Corporation;
- c. “By-laws” means this by-law (including the schedules to this by-law) and all other by-laws of the Corporation as amended and which are, from time to time, in force;
- d. “Chair” means the chair of the Board;
- e. “Corporation” means Scarborough Theatre Guild Inc. a not-for-profit Corporation and a Registered Charity that has passed these by-laws under the Act;
- f. “Director” means an individual occupying the position of director of the Corporation by whatever name he or she is called;
- g. “Member” means a member of the Corporation;
- h. “Members” means the collective membership of the Corporation; and
- i. “Officer” means an Officer of the Corporation

1.02 Interpretation:

Other than as specified in Section 1.01, all terms contained in this By-law that are defined in the Act shall have the meanings given to such terms in the Act. Words importing the singular include the plural and vice versa, and words importing one gender include all genders.

1.03 Severability and Precedence:

The invalidity or unenforceability of any provision of this By-law shall not affect the validity or enforceability of the remaining provisions of this By-law. If any of the provisions contained in the by-laws are inconsistent with those contained in the Articles or the Act, the provisions contained in the Articles or the Act, as the case may be, shall prevail.

1.04 Seal:

The seal, an impression of which is stamped in the margin of this document, shall be the seal of the Corporation. The secretary of the Corporation shall oversee the corporate seal and its use.

1.05 Execution of Contracts:

Deeds, transfers, assignments, contracts, obligations and other instruments in writing requiring execution by the Corporation may be signed by any two of its Officers or Directors. In addition, the Board may from time to time direct the manner in which and the person by whom a particular document or type of document shall be executed. Any person authorized to sign any document may affix the corporate seal, if any, to the document. Any Director or Officer may certify a copy of any instrument, resolution, by-law or other document of the Corporation to be a true copy thereof.

Section 2 – Directors

2.01 Election and Term:

The Directors shall be elected by the Members. The term of office of the Directors (subject to the provisions, if any, of the articles) shall be from the date of the meeting at which they are elected or appointed until the next annual meeting or until their successors are elected or appointed.

ALTERNATE to SECTION 2.01

- (a) The roles of President, Vice-President, Secretary and Treasurer shall be elected by the Members at the Annual General Meeting. Other Board members (members at large) shall be elected by the Members by means of a subsequent ballot at the same meeting. Unsuccessful candidates for the roles specified above may still stand for election as a member at large. The term of office of the Directors (subject to the provisions, if any, of the articles) shall be from the date of the meeting at which they are elected or appointed until the next annual meeting or until their successors are elected or appointed.
- (b) Should there be only one candidate for any of the roles of President, Vice-president, Secretary or Treasurer, that candidate shall not be acclaimed for the role, but must be approved by a majority of the membership present and eligible to vote at the meeting. If the candidate is not approved or there are no candidates for any of the roles, the roles will be filled by the consensus of the rest of the elected board at a subsequent board meeting.

2.02 Vacancies:

The office of a Director shall be vacated immediately:

- a. if the Director resigns office by written notice to the Corporation, which resignation shall be effective at the time it is received by the Corporation or at the time specified in the notice, whichever is later;
- b. if the Director dies;

- c. If the Director is convicted of a criminal offence
- d. if the Director becomes bankrupt, makes an assignment, or is declared insolvent;
- e. if the Director is found to be incapable of managing property by a court or under Ontario law; or
- f. if, at a meeting of the Members, a resolution is passed by at least a two-thirds majority of the votes cast by the Members removing the Director before the expiration of the Director's term of office.

2.03 Filling Vacancies:

A vacancy on the Board shall be filled as follows:

- a. a quorum of Directors may fill a vacancy among the Directors;
- b. if there is not a quorum of Directors or there has been a failure to elect the minimum number of Directors set out in the articles, the Directors in office shall, without delay, call a special meeting of Members to fill the vacancy and, if they fail to call such a meeting, the meeting may be called by any Member;
- c. if the vacancy occurs as a result of the Members removing a Director, the Members may fill the vacancy by a majority vote and any Director elected to fill the vacancy shall hold office for the remainder of the removed Director's term; and
- d. the Board may fill any other vacancy by a majority vote, and the appointee shall hold office for the remainder of the unexpired portion of the term of the vacating Director. After that, the appointee shall be eligible to be elected as a Director.

2.04 Committees:

Committees may be established by the Board as follows:

- a. The Board may appoint from their number a managing Director or a committee of Directors and may delegate to the managing Director or committee any of the powers of the Directors excepting those powers set out in the Act that are not permitted to be delegated; and
- b. Subject to the limitations on delegation set out in the Act, the Board may establish any committee it determines necessary for the execution of the Board's responsibilities. Any such committee may formulate its own rules of procedure, subject to such regulations or directions as the Board may from time to time make. Any committee member may be removed by resolution of the Board.

2.05 Remuneration of Directors:

No Director shall directly or indirectly receive any profit from occupying the position of Director or from providing services to the Corporation in another capacity. However, Directors may be reimbursed for reasonable expenses that they incur in either of those capacities.

Section 3 – Board Meetings

3.01 Calling of Meetings:

Meetings of the Directors may be called by the Chair, or any two Directors at any time and any place on notice as required by this by-law.

3.02 Regular Meetings:

The Board may fix the place and time of regular Board meetings and send a copy of the resolution fixing the place and time of such meetings to each Director, and no other notice shall be required for any such meetings.

3.03 Notice:

Notice of the time and place for the holding of a meeting of the Board shall be given in the manner provided in Section 10 of this by-law to every Director of the Corporation not less than two days before the date that the meeting is to be held. Notice of a meeting is not necessary if all of the Directors are present, and none objects to the holding of the meeting, or if those absent have waived notice or have otherwise signified their consent to the holding of such meeting. If a quorum of Directors is present, each newly elected or appointed Board shall, without notice, hold its first meeting immediately following the annual meeting of the Corporation.

3.04 Chair:

The President shall be given the first opportunity to assume the role pf Chair. The Chair shall preside at Board meetings. In the absence of the Chair, the Directors present shall choose one of their number to act as the Chair.

3.05 Quorum:

A quorum must be present at any Board meeting in order to conduct business arising at that meeting. A quorum shall be defined as 6 members present if the full Board consists of 10 members, and 5 members present if the full Board consists of 8 or 9 members.

3.05 Voting:

Each Director has one vote. Motions arising at any Board meeting shall be decided by a majority of votes. In case of an equality of votes, the Chair shall have a second or casting vote.

3.06 Participation by Telephone or Other Communications Facilities:

If a majority of the Directors of the Corporation consent, a Director may participate in a meeting of the Board or of a committee of Directors by telephonic or electronic means that permit all participants to communicate adequately with each other during the meeting. Such telephonic or electronic means must allow for the verification of the identity of the person so participating. A Director participating by such means is deemed to be present at that meeting.

Section 4 – Financial

4.01 Banking:

The Board shall by resolution from time to time designate the bank in which the money, bonds or other securities of the Corporation shall be placed for safekeeping.

4.02 Financial Year:

The financial year of the Corporation ends on July 31 in each year or on such other date as the Board may from time to time by resolution determine, subject to approval by Revenue Canada.

Section 5 – Officers

5.01 Officers:

The Board shall appoint from among the Directors a President, Vice-president, Treasurer and Secretary at its first meeting following the annual meeting of the Corporation. Any two offices may be held by the same person except president and vice-president. The office of Chair and President shall also be held by the same person. The Board may appoint such other Officers and agents as it deems necessary, and who shall have such authority and shall perform such duties as the Board may prescribe from time to time.

In the interest of fostering continuous development among members and enabling succession planning, no member of the executive committee shall hold the same office for more than three (3) consecutive years unless, in the opinion of the Board of Directors, it is necessary that that member should continue. Such continuation must be approved by Board resolution and be shown in the minutes

The immediate Past-President of the Corporation shall remain an officer by virtue of his or her former office. The Past President shall serve for only one term.

ALTERNATE TO SECTION 5.01 – to be used if the alternate to Section 2.01 is adopted.

The roles of President, Vice President, Secretary and Treasurer being already decided by the Members, the Board shall appoint from among its members such other Officers and agents as it deems necessary at its first meeting following the annual meeting of the Corporation. Any two offices may be held by the same person except President and Vice-president. The office of Chair and President shall also be held by the same person.

In the interest of fostering continuous development among members and enabling succession planning, no member of the executive committee shall hold the same office for more than three (3) consecutive years unless, in the opinion of the Board of Directors, it is necessary that that member should continue. Such continuation must be approved by Board resolution and be shown in the minutes

The immediate Past-President of the Corporation shall remain an officer by virtue of his or her former office. The Past President shall serve for only one term.

5.02 Office Held at Board's Discretion:

Any Officer shall cease to hold office upon resolution of the Board. If a vacancy shall occur in any office, by reason of death, resignation, disqualification or otherwise, the directors may by resolution elect or appoint a person to fill such vacancy.

5.03 Duties:

Officers shall be responsible for the duties assigned to them and they may delegate to others the performance of any or all such duties.

5.04 Duties of the Chair:

The Chair shall perform the duties described in sections 3.04 and 9.05 and such other duties as may be required by law or as the Board may determine from time to time. Unless otherwise determined by the Board from time to time, the positions of Chair and President shall be held by the same person.

5.05 Duties of the President:

The president shall perform the duties described in Schedule A and such other duties as may be required by law or as the Board may determine from time to time.

The Vice-President shall be vested with all the powers and shall perform all the duties of the President in the absence or disability or refusal to act of the President. The Vice-President shall have such other powers and duties as may from time to time be assigned by the directors.

5.06 Duties of the Vice-president. The Vice -president shall perform the duties of the President if the President is unable to do so. The Vice-president will assist the President as required.

5.07 Duties of the Treasurer: The treasurer shall perform the duties described in Schedule B and such other duties as may be required by law or as the Board may determine from time to time.

5.08 Duties of the Secretary: The secretary shall perform the duties described in Schedule C and such other duties as may be required by law or as the Board may determine from time to time.

5.09 Duties of the Past President:

The role of Past President shall be taken by the immediate outgoing President during the first term of the newly elected President. The Past President shall be available to advise the newly elected President and the Board in matters concerning on-going operations and policy. This role is a non-voting Board position, and the presence or absence of the Past President shall not have any effect on determining the presence of a quorum for any Board meeting.

Section 6 – Protection of Directors and Others

6.01 Protection of Directors and Officers

No Director, Officer or committee member of the Corporation is to be held liable for the acts, neglects or defaults of any other Director, Officer, committee member or employee of the Corporation or for joining in any receipt or for any loss, damage or expense happening to the Corporation through the insufficiency or deficiency of title to any property acquired by resolution of the Board or for or on behalf of the Corporation or for the insufficiency or deficiency of any security in or upon which any of the money of or belonging to the Corporation shall be placed out or invested or for any loss or damage arising from the bankruptcy, insolvency or tortious act of any person, firm or Corporation with whom or which any moneys, securities or effects shall be lodged or deposited or for any other loss, damage or misfortune whatever which may happen in the execution of the duties of his or her respective office or trust provided that they have:

- a. complied with the Act and the Corporation's articles and By-laws; and
- b. exercised their powers and discharged their duties in accordance with the Act

Section 7 – Conflict of Interest

7.01 Conflict of Interest

A Director who is in any way directly or indirectly interested in a contract or transaction, or proposed contract or transaction, with the Corporation shall make the disclosure required by the Act. Except as provided by the Act, no such Director shall attend any part of a meeting of Directors or vote on any resolution to approve any such contract or transaction.

7.02 Charitable Corporations

As the Corporation is currently registered as a Charitable Corporation, no Director shall, directly or through an associate, receive a financial benefit, through a contract or otherwise, from the Corporation unless the provisions of the Act and the law applicable to charitable corporations are complied with.

Section 8 – Members

8.01 Members:

Membership in the Corporation shall consist of three classes of Members, namely, Regular Members, Honorary Members and Technical Members. The following conditions of Membership shall apply:

Regular Members: Regular Members shall be individuals who have applied and been accepted for Membership in the Corporation, and have paid the Membership Fee as determined from time to time by the Members at the Annual General Meeting. The term of Membership of a Regular Member shall be one year, subject to renewal in accordance with the policies of the Corporation. Each Regular Member is entitled to receive notice of, attend, and vote at all meetings of Members, and shall be entitled to one (1) vote at such meetings

Honorary Members: The Board may, by resolution, bestow the title of Honorary Member on any Regular Member who has met the following criteria:

- Has been a Regular Member for at least 12 consecutive years, and
- Has made significant contribution to the operations of the Corporation by means of participating in the theatrical productions of the Corporation, either as cast or crew, or
- Has made significant contribution to the Corporation as a member of the Board.

Honorary Members retain their membership for life, unless removed as a Member under the provisions of Section 8.05 of this By-Law. The requirement of an annual Membership Fee is waived for Honorary Members. Each Honorary Member is entitled to receive notice of, attend, and vote at all meetings of Members, and shall be entitled to one (1) vote at such meetings

Technical: The Board may, by resolution, bestow the title of Technical Member on any person who has made extraordinary contribution to the operations of the Corporation by means of participating in the technical aspects of the theatrical productions of the Corporation, or in the maintenance and good operation of the leased property of the Corporation.

The term of Membership of a Technical Member shall be one year, subject to renewal by similar resolution of the Board. The requirement of an annual Membership Fee is waived for Technical Members. Each Technical Member is entitled to receive notice of, attend, and vote at all meetings of Members, and shall be entitled to one (1) vote at such meetings

Youth Members: Youth membership will be bestowed on any person under the age of 18 who is cast in or who is acting as a crew member in any theatrical production presented by the Corporation. Such participation must be with the consent of a parent or guardian, who is of the age of majority. Youth Members will not be able to vote at Members' meetings, and will not be counted towards a quorum for the purposes of any meeting.

Theatre Scarborough. All current members of the Board of Directors of Playhouse 66, otherwise known as Theatre Scarborough, shall be deemed members of the Corporation for the duration of their terms on that Board.

8.02 Membership:

Membership in the Corporation is not transferable and automatically terminates if the Member resigns or such Membership is otherwise terminated in accordance with the Act.

8.03 Membership Fee:

The Membership Fee shall be an amount as determined by the Membership at the Annual General Meeting. Membership Fees are payable at the beginning of each financial year.

8.04 Requirement to Become a Member:

Every individual cast in one of the shows produced by the Corporation must be a Member of the Corporation. For a new Member cast in a production in the middle of the financial year, the Membership Fee will be pro-rated for the remainder of the year.

8.05 Disciplinary Act or Termination of Membership for Cause:

Upon 15 days' written notice to a Member, the Board may pass a resolution authorizing disciplinary action or the termination of Membership for violating any provision of the articles or By-laws.

The notice shall set out the reasons for the disciplinary action or termination of Membership. The Member receiving the notice shall be entitled to give the Board a written or oral submission opposing the disciplinary action or termination not less than 5 days before the end of the 15-day period. The Board shall consider the submission of the Member before making a final decision regarding disciplinary action or termination of Membership.

Grounds for disciplinary action or termination may include, but are not limited to; the following;

- Conduct in contravention of the Corporation's Code of Conduct Policy
- Conduct which may cause reputational harm to the Corporation or its Members.
- Theft or destruction of property of the Corporation

Section 9 – Members' Meetings

9.01 Annual Meeting:

The annual meeting shall be held on a day and at a place within Ontario fixed by the Board. Any Member, upon request, shall be provided, not less than 21 days or other number of days prescribed in regulations before the annual meeting, with a copy of the approved financial statements, auditor's report or review engagement report and other financial information required by the By-laws or articles. The business transacted at the annual meeting shall include:

- a. receipt of the agenda;
- b. receipt of the minutes of the previous annual and subsequent special meetings;
- c. consideration of the financial statements;
- d. report of the auditor or person who has been appointed to conduct a review engagement;
- e. reappointment or new appointment of the auditor or a person to conduct a review engagement for the coming year;
- f. election of Directors; and
- g. such other or special business as may be set out in the notice of meeting.

No other item of business shall be included on the agenda for annual meeting unless a Member's proposal has been given to the secretary prior to the giving of notice of the annual meeting in accordance with the Act, so that such item of new business can be included in the notice of annual meeting.

9.02 Special Meetings:

The Directors may call a special meeting of the Members. The Board shall convene a special meeting on written requisition of not less than 10 Members for any purpose connected with the affairs of the Corporation that does not fall within the exceptions listed in the Act or is otherwise inconsistent with the Act, within 21 days from the date of the deposit of the requisition.

9.03 Notice:

Subject to the Act, not less than 10 and not more than 50 days written notice of any annual or special Members' meeting shall be given in the manner specified in the Act to each Member and to the auditor or person appointed to conduct a review engagement (Section 55(1)(a) & (c)). Notice of any meeting where special business will be transacted must contain sufficient information to permit the Members to form a reasoned judgment on the decision to be taken (Section 55(8)(a)). Notice of each meeting must remind the Member of the right to vote by proxy (Section 65).

9.04 Quorum:

A quorum for the transaction of business at a Members' meeting is twenty (20) Members entitled to vote at the meeting, A quorum must be present throughout the meeting in order for the Members to proceed with the business of the meeting.

9.05 Chair of the Meeting:

The Chair shall be the chair of the Members' meeting; in the Chair's absence, the Members present at any Members' meeting shall choose another Director as chair and if no Director is present or if all of the Directors present decline to act as chair, the Members present shall choose one of their number to chair the meeting.

9.06 Voting of Members

Motions arising at any Members' meeting shall be decided by a majority of votes unless otherwise required by the Act or the By-law provided that:

- a. each Member shall be entitled to one vote at any meeting;
- b. votes shall be taken by a show of hands among all Members present and the chair of the meeting, if a Member, shall have a vote;
- c. an abstention shall not be considered a vote cast;
- d. before or after a show of hands has been taken on any motion, the chair of the meeting may require, or any Member may demand, a written ballot. A written ballot so required or demanded shall be taken in such manner as the chair of the meeting shall direct;

e. if there is a tie vote, the chair of the meeting shall require a written ballot, and shall not have a second or casting vote. If there is a tie vote upon written ballot, the motion is lost; and

f. whenever a vote by show of hands is taken on a motion, unless a written ballot is required or demanded, a declaration by the chair of the meeting that a resolution has been carried or lost and an entry to that effect in the minutes shall be conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of votes recorded in favour of or against the motion

9.07 Election of Directors

At the Annual General Meeting, nominations for Directors will be made from the Members prior to the election. Each candidate must be a Member and be nominated by a Member and seconded by another Member. The nominee must consent to their name being put forward. If the nominee is not present at the meeting, they must have provided notice of their intent to stand for election, in writing, to the Chair at least 48 hours prior to the start of the meeting.

In the interest of efficient use of time, all current Directors who wish to remain on the Board may be nominated and seconded as a slate, subject to the consent of the Members.

9.08 Adjournments:

The Chair may, with the majority consent of any Members' meeting, adjourn the same from time to time and no notice of such adjournment need be given to the Members, unless the meeting is adjourned by one or more adjournments for an aggregate of 30 days or more. Any business may be brought before or dealt with at any adjourned meeting which might have been brought before or dealt with at the original meeting in accordance with the notice calling the same.

9.09 Persons Entitled to be Present:

The only persons entitled to attend a Members' meeting are the Members, the Directors, the auditors of the Corporation (or the person who has been appointed to conduct a review engagement, if any) and others who are entitled or required under any provision of the Act or the articles to be present at the meeting. Any other person may be admitted only if invited by the Chair of the meeting or with the majority consent of the Members present at the meeting.

Section 10 – Notices

10.01 Services

Any notice required to be sent to any Member or Director or to the auditor or person who has been appointed to conduct a review engagement shall be provided by telephone, delivered personally, or sent by prepaid mail, facsimile, email or other electronic means to any such Member or Director at their latest address as shown in the records of the Corporation and to the auditor or the person who has been appointed to conduct a review engagement at its business address, or if no address be given then to the last address of such Member or Director known to the secretary; provided always that notice may be waived or the time for the notice may be waived or abridged at any time with the consent in writing of the person entitled thereto.

10.02 Computation of Time:

Where a given number of days' notice or notice extending over any period is required to be given, the day of service or posting of the notice shall not, unless it is otherwise provided, be counted in such number of days or other period.

10.03 Error or Omission in Giving Notice:

No error or accidental omission in giving notice of any Board meeting or any Members' meeting shall invalidate the meeting or make void any proceedings taken at the meeting.

Section 11 – Adoption and Amendment of By-laws

11.01 Amendments to By-laws:

The Members may from time to time amend this By-law by a majority of the votes cast at a duly convened Members' Meeting.
