Retreat March

The Green Hills of Tyrol

Traditional

Verse:

there was a soldier a Scotch soldier who wandered far a way and soldiered far a way
He's seen the glory and told the story of battles glorious and deeds victorious there was none bolder with good broad shoulder He's fought in many a fray and fought and won
But now he's sighing his heart is crying to leave these green hills of Tyrol.

Chorus:

Because these green hills are not highland hills or the island hills they're not my land's hills and fair as these green foreign hills may be they're not the hills of home.
