Internal Training Notes

Tip 1: You will provide this form to any customer you feel the prints are of poor quality. You will fill out and staple to the card(s) and give to the customer.

Tip 2: If the first prints are rejected, you will fingerprint the customer again and provide this form on the new cards if the quality is still poor.

Tip 3: In this section above you can write any of these reasons if they apply. Worn ridge pattern, dry and cracked skin, stiff joints, arthritis prevents proper capture.
