

I have the power to
choose my thoughts,
feelings, beliefs, &
actions.

My life purpose is always alive in me even when circumstances change.

I am able to create what I want in my life.

I am able to go after my dreams with courage &
tenacity.

I am capable of creating
anything in my life

I have the power to
choose my path.

If I can see it & believe it, I can achieve it.

All my actions are in perfect harmony with my purpose.

As I grow more
connected to my soul, my life's purpose becomes clearer and clearer.

As I live my true purpose,
joy and contentment fill
my life.
