

Originally from St. Joseph Missouri, Cole has served at Casa de Mi Padre since 2015 and was appointed to be the director of operations in 2020. As we are taking on more responsibilities with the ministry, we are also taking on more of the financial burden of the mission. Cole and Sarah are inspired by the testimony of George Mueller, a missionary to orphans in the 1800's, who relied on the Lord to provide for his ministry, which grew to include 5 orphanages and other Christian outreaches. Rather than asking people for funding, he and his staff prayed fervently, and then when God provided for their needs, they could share their stories of how the God of the Bible is still the same today in His love and power as He cares for His children . We are trusting the Lord to continue touching people's hearts and providing for our mission work through one-time gifts and monthly donors, as He faithfully has in all our years of serving here.

Please join us in praying for our funding needs as we serve the children and youth.

HOW TO HELP

- PRAYING. We are in daily need of prayers for wisdom and strength to carry out the work God has prepared for us to do. Sign up for our monthly prayer letter by contacting us or coleandsarahm@gmail.com or the mailing address below, or listen to our monthly podcast "McCauley's on Mission" for an audio version!
- GIVING. Your support enables us to live and minister in Guatemala as we help kids in our children's home, pay staff at the orphanage, allow older youth to continue their education, and do many other aspects of mission work.

Your hands and feet for the Orphaned

Casa De Mi Padre (My Father's House)

Where children receive hope, stability, food, clothing, shelter, family, schooling, solid Biblical instruction, and living examples of God's love.

Top: Mountains and volcanoes of Guatemala.
Bottom: Two of our kids in traditional attire.

Our orphanage is located in Santa Cruz del Quiché, Guatemala, Central America. Although the country of Guatemala is ecologically beautiful, poverty is particularly wide spread throughout the countryside and large intercity areas. Illiteracy, infant mortality, and malnutrition are among the highest in the region, while life expectancy is the lowest. The Quiché people are an indigenous group who have limited education and resources. The population of the city of Santa Cruz is between 45 and 55 thousand people. The opportunity for ministry is vast and the need for orphan care in Santa Cruz, the district of Quiché, and the surrounding region is real.

CHILD RESCUE - CASA DE MI PADRE

As a distinctly Christian orphanage, we seek to help our kids overcome the hurts in their past through the transforming power of the gospel. Our prayer is that the children we care for will come to know the love of God, accept salvation through Christ, and be empowered by the Holy Spirit with a strong Christian witness to others.

CHILDREN'S HOME:

The ministry of Child Rescue is to provide refuge and shelter for needy children coming from poverty, shattered homes, abandonment, or children orphaned through death. Child Rescue meets the physical needs of children in order to have the opportunity to then meet their spiritual needs. We usually have about 23 kids ages 5-17 living in our orphanage.

We work to provide a loving, family environment in our orphanage.

We make sure each of our kids has quality schooling.

TRANSITIONAL PROGRAM:

When the young people we serve turn 18 and have to leave the children's home, our ministry continues helping them as they journey toward independence. This program is serving 10 young men and women. We currently have 2 of these students living with our family, and expect for another to move in soon.

We've had older kids from Casa live with us if we can't find Guatemalan homes.

We continue to fund our kids' education after age 18 when they must leave Casa.

MISSIONS:

We seek to glorify God by sharing His love with others in word and deed. Kids from Casa participate in our weekly Bible quizzing program along with other youth in the area, as well as camps and retreats. We also host missions groups from the USA for mission trips to serve at the orphanage or to help with the construction of our new orphanage site. More details are on the our website.

Proclaiming the glory of God is our highest goal.

We pray that our kids will follow Christ and live for Him.
