

STUDIO LOCATIONS AND ARTISTS

|                         |                                                                                                        |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             |
|-------------------------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1. 18249 Sherwood Trail | GF Youth Council                                                                                       | Drawing, jewelry, beadwork, wood working, knitting                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
| 2. 18102 Lakeshore      | Susan CalkinsJames HendricksHebron ChismMark KohnitzZareya Rahman                      | Stone and Metal SculpturesSculptureFunctional Art, Lamp sculptures, wine racks, trays, candlesPaintings, decorative tiles, mugsPaintings & Sculptures inspired by life and nature **                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| 3. 18419 Hill Top Drive | Catherine Olin                                                                                         | Needle felted creations                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
| 4. 18911 Sherwood Trl   | Mitzi RuttanSelby Anderson                                                                         | Hand crocheted Afghans & MusicKey rings and objects made with various tied knots                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                        |
| 5. 18515 Sherwood Trl   | Jill Sulak                                                                                             | Hand crafted soaps                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          |
| 6. 18510 Sherwood Trl   | Annie McEntireMyles McEntire                                                                       | Local Texas photography, wildflower, botanical, resin photo earringsLocal award-winning nature photography, landscape paintings                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| 7. 18922 Lookout Mtn    | Crystal Rocha                                                                                          | Multidisciplinary work space specializing in contemporary oil paintings                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                     |
| 8. 19014 Lookout Mtn    | Kent SlaytonRebecca SlaytonEliot SchechterPhilip Mitchell                                  | Stone, metal and resin sculptures, solar bird baths, didgeridoosPrints of original acrylic paintingsPhotographic composition that explores colors, layers, & boundariesAcrylic on canvas painting with a trickster's bent                                                                                                                                                       |
| 9. 18807 Hillside Dr    | Jan ManterCindy HochartAlicia TappKathy MitchellJames & Debbie Hokanson                | Oil paintings, acrylic, pen & ink, watercolorsCeramic garden sculptures & tabletop totems, frolicking snowmenCeramic garden artFunctional ceramicsHand turned award winning vessels and ink pens                                                                                                                                                                            |
| 10. 18944 Hillside Dr   | Donald DarstCharles JamesTamatha NovanGeorge BedoyXavier AlvarezIsaac Huxle Watson | Representational oil paintings and gicleesWatercolors, pen & ink celebrating Texas heritage plus "Art of Helotes"Oil paintings, landscapes & wildlife, featuring a series on Koi fishExpressionist illustrations and paintings (high school student)Ceramic sculpture, unique cups, bowls with fun reliefsTraditional & eclectic mixed media in a variety of themes *** |
| 11. 19609 Greenhill     | Robert Tatum                                                                                           | Contemporary folk & whimsical paintings that bring a thoughtful pause                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                       |

** GFOS 2025 Student Art Scholarship Winner Louis D. Brandeis High School

*** GFOS 2025 Student Art Scholarship Winner Sandra Day O'Connor High School