ARTICLE IX
PROCESS FOR MAKING BOARD DECISIONS BY EMAIL

Section 1:

General Considerations

The president or other officer may request the Board Directors to discuss and vote on proposals via email. In most cases, an email vote may be requested because there is a need to make a prompt decision that cannot wait until the next regularly scheduled Board meeting. Such needs may include, for example, a proposed increase in the budgeted amount for an expenditure, a new expenditure not listed in the budget, permission to proceed on a proposal or project, etc.

Section 2:

- A. Each Director is expected to vote on an issue when the request for the email vote is sent.
- B. A majority of Board Directors must approve any request for the email vote. Consensus should be the goal of Board decisions. If a tie vote occurs, then the request is not approved.
- C. It is imperative that proposals move forward and are voted on. If a Director is not able to respond to the original request for discussion in the time allotted (as indicated in the email request), then he/she should abstain or vote "Do not approve."
- D. The online decision-making process will have two stages: (1) Discussion and (2) Voting.

Section 3:

Discussion

The president or officer requesting the email vote will write an email to all officers and directors of the board, copying the Park Manager. The email will include the following:

1. (a) Subject line with the name of the proposal;
(b) a brief description of the proposal; and
(c) the discussion deadline.
2. For proposals that require a quick decision, the subject line should start with the words IMMEDIATE ACTION REQUIRED.
3. In response to the email, each director will “reply all” to the most recent message in the email thread.

This process is proposed and streamlined to facilitate a quick approval to a pressing need. If such questions arise that would necessitate lengthy discussion, additional suggestions or amendment(s) to the proposal, the proposal should be tabled to the next regularly scheduled meeting or, if necessary, an emergency meeting of the Board of Directors should be called.

Section 4:

Voting

A. After the discussion deadline has passed, the president or requesting officer will call for an email vote by replying to the same email thread. The “motion to vote” email will have the following parts:

1. Proposal name, brief description, and voting deadline For example: Vote on Increasing Clothing Budget, Vote by 12/25/17
2. Voting deadline
3. Subject line starts with IMMEDIATE ACTION REQUIRED.

B. Each Director will “reply all” to the most recent message in the thread and indicate one of the following:

- Abstain
- Approve
- Do not approve

C. If a Director does not reply to the “motion to vote” email within the timeframe stipulated, the president or officer requesting the email vote will directly contact that Director to solicit their response. If the Director does not respond by the deadline indicated, that Director’s vote will not be counted.

D. After the vote deadline indicated, or if a majority of the Board Directors who have not recused or abstained have given consent before the voting deadline, the president or officer requesting the email vote will “reply all” to the most recent message in the thread stating the Board’s decision.

E. If the proposal is not approved, then the president or officer requesting the email vote may take the concerns or reservations of the voting members into consideration to determine whether to submit a new proposal. All new proposals will follow the same process as stated above.

F. The Board Secretary will record and file the Board’s final decision.

-- Bylaws revised and approved at the October 25, 2023, Board meeting.
