

Reyacu Nomentis Dayaday

Change comes early, Change comes late
Change will come as you sit and wait.
Like it or not, you are not immune
Your life will change, so get in tune.

Embrace your life as it shifts gears;
Change can bring joy and sometimes tears.
Change is exciting; the possibilities abound
Stop trying to control it—you'll never win a single round.

How many times have you worried about change?
Only to realize what you feared is now estranged.
So you move on and tomorrow is now today
Embrace Change—say Reyacu Nomentis Dayaday.
