Celebrate My Gifts Adult Style • $149

Limited to 50 women, this event is like no other. From a dose of self-love, to being back in school and not being able to speak during an activity, to engaging in an escape room escapade, your day will be filled with unusual activities. Your imagination, logic, creativity, stamina, and downright silliness is mandatory. You get to see, firsthand, what tween girls love about their quest, only you get the adult version of it.

Get a group of friends together or come alone. We promise you a day of fun, with a twist. You won't be disappointed. The activities are designed to let your creativity come alive. Whether you're looking for a much-needed mommy break or an escape from the crazy world of work, we have something to soothe the savage beast.

This event runs from 9 am to 5:00 pm. Registration begins at 8:30 am.

Event fee includes all session materials and a few surprises. Snacks and beverages will be available throughout the day. A boxed lunch is provided as well.

This workshop consists of the following sessions:

Joy Activity – Gifts, talents, strengths. Discover whether what you see in yourself is what others see in you. You will receive a journal to jot down your observations of others.

Trust Activity – Imagination Zoo. The kids are resourceful and imaginative during this activity. Can grown women do the same? What if you can't speak to each other? Hmm.

Love Activity – As tweens, girls begin loathing and comparing themselves to others. As adults, we may still do the same thing, or we ignore our needs for those of others. Either way, we need to consider cutting ourselves some slack and let the love shine in.

Balance Activity – Our tweens are introduced to a basic escape room. The goal, for them and you, is to acknowledge the strengths in others, not be intimidated by them, and allow your strengths to enhance your team's success.

Change Activity – For the girls, it's a VIP luncheon with women of various careers. For you, it's a game of getting to know one special thing about each woman at this quest.

Honor Activity – This is all about games and honoring your and others' abilities. As a group, you will choose each game to be played. How about a game of baby rattles?

Conviction Activity – Our tweens create vision boards for this. The grown-up version is not a board. You will create a piece of art. No experience required!

Celebrate yourself and witness other women doing the same. Leave with a personal item, perhaps the phone number of a new friend, and an appreciation of who you are! Come alone or bring friends. And remember, if you enjoy your time with us, you can register your daughter, provide a scholarship for a tween girl, or become a sponsor of Celebrate My Gifts Quest for girls.
