GLORIE'S

The Ugandan dresses are then rented out to Ugandan brides in our shop, Glorie's, that employs women who have survived trafficking.

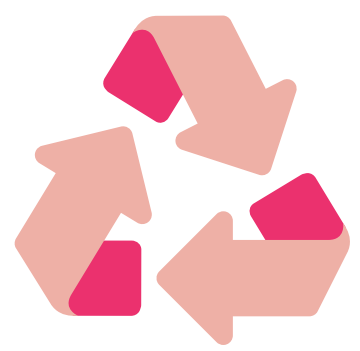

CREATE

We send the money from the sale of your wedding dress to designers and seamstresses in Uganda who have survived trafficking, we employ these ladies in creating wedding gowns that fit the wedding gown styles popular in Uganda.

RECYCLE

Some of the gowns we receive don't fit the Ugandan wedding aesthetic. With those gowns, we recycle your dress by re-selling it to another US bride who will treasure your gown on her wedding day!

UPCYCLE

Some of the gowns we receive go directly to Uganda where they are rented to Ugandan brides in our Bridal Shop - Glorie's - that employs women who have come out of sex-trafficking and forced marriage.
