Frequently Asked Questions

When should we book our photographer?

Most couples reserve their wedding photographer 6–12 months in advance, particularly for peak wedding season dates.

Will you help with our wedding timeline?

Yes. I'm happy to help create a timeline that allows time for portraits, family photos, and candid moments while keeping the day relaxed.

How will we receive our images?

Your photographs are delivered in a private online gallery where you can download high-resolution files and order professional prints.

When will we see our photos?

You'll receive curated sneak peeks the day after your wedding, with the full gallery delivered within the timeframe listed in your collection.

How do we reserve our date?

A signed agreement and deposit are required to officially reserve your wedding date.
