

DEFEND THE CONSTITUTION

Through community action

Here are some places to learn more:

Learn about democracy transformations in other countries by following Audrey Tang, the Digital Ambassador at Large in Taiwan. Here is a podcast to start.

Initiatives in the USA:

- Engaged California
- What Could Bowling Green Kentucky Be?
- New Hampshire Citizens Assembly
- Central Oregon Civic Action Project
- Fort Collins, Colorado Civic Assembly
- SIDE Event – Stakeholders, Individuals, Data and Evidence, with a New Hampshire Member of Congress.

Subscribe to newsletters and podcasts:

Sign up for your Member of Congress newsletter.

- The Council on Technology and Social Cohesion – to learn the latest about deliberative technologies and where initiatives are happening
- Future Caucus is working with young legislators across the USA to find common ground
- The Bridge Alliance is a coalition supporting healthy democracy
- DemocracyNext is generating participatory processes in many countries
- Niskanen Center–finds ideas that synthesize markets and government
- Foundation for American Innovation –showcases governance innovation
- New Public is building community, human-centered social media
- Beyond Intractability covers peacebuilding and conflict resolution
- Jennifer Pahlka's substack Eating Policy is on Reforming US government
- Jessica Craven's Chop Wood, Carry Water updates democracy support actions
- Project Liberty is working to give control of the Internet back to the people
- Make.org is working to scale engagement in democracy
- Steve Vladeck's One First follows judicial issues
- The Great Battlefield podcast explores progressive thought leadership to support democracy
- Know Your Enemy podcast explains how the American Right became anti-democracy.

Others:

- Protect Democracy's If You Can Keep It
- Heather Cox Richardson. Letter from an American
- Daniel Schuman's First Branch Forecast
- Anne Meeker's Voice/Mail and the Popvox Foundation
- Micah Sifry's The Connector is at the intersection of politics, technology and progress
- Democracy Forward protects the federal government through the courts
- Learn about data and cooperative models that serve democracy. Congressional Data Coalition participatory budgeting and participatory planning

- Gabe Lerner's DemocracyNotes

Here is a letter to Congress that from 40+ organizations and individuals working to improve collaboration technology use in civic spaces.

Here is the Shape=>Structure=>Share roadmap and curriculum that includes playbooks written with guidance on engagement methods with elected leaders. For example,

Learn about how Congress is reforming itself. Here is the Select Committee's final report on the Modernization of Congress. Here is the Bipartisan Policy Center's implementation tracker.

Members of Congress seek diverse and effective ways to engage with their constituents to listen and gather valuable feedback. Regularly meeting with your representative and being a dependable resource can foster innovation and encourage collaboration with colleagues.

Is your Member of Congress innovating new ways to connect with constituents? Let us know!

Contact@ConstitutionalDefense.us