The Girlguiding Green form

The Girlguiding Green form is used for DofE expeditions and is effectively the equivalent of a REN form.

The Green form, together with route details, is approved by the local County DofE Adviser.

The Green form is also sent to the following people for information, consulting as required:

- Home Commissioner for level of the group
- •Home County Adviser for mode of travel, e.g. Walking Adviser
- Home County Outdoor Adviser
- Home County Residential Adviser
- Host County DofE Adviser for area of expedition

Members doing their DofE expeditions through Girlguiding need to:

- •Make sure every member receives training for the expedition as required by DofE.
- •Make a home contact list for themselves and the supervisor.

Note that the Expedition Supervisor needs the appropriate experience and qualification for the highest level of countryside classification that the expedition will go through. i.e. walking experience/qualification for a walking expedition.

They also need to hold the role of 'County Duke of Edinburgh Supervisor' on GO and have completed A Safe Space training levels 1 to 3.

Risk Assessment should be signed off by the local Commissioner, as for any other guiding activity in a new location.
