

Discover the great outdoors with Girlguiding's 2021 Walking Courses

Ambleside, Lake District, Cumbria, 10-16 October 2021

These courses will further develop your skills so that you can lead fun walking activities in more remote areas, that will build girls and young women's confidence, as well as giving them time out in the open air to think and re-charge. Our courses are open to all Girlguiding members aged 18 and over, who have the relevant walking experience.

Girlguiding Walking Scheme Level 3 Training

Cost: approx £325

If you are already qualified at Level 2 with further mountain walking experience, this course is a natural next step. However, you do not have to have completed Level 2 to do Level 3 if you already have enough relevant experience.

Girlguiding Walking Scheme Level 3 Assessment

Cost: approx £350

You must have completed a Girlguiding Level 3 training course or Mountain Leader Award Training course or gained exemption from training. Your logbook must have 20 quality hill walking days in remote and extreme country.

Mountain Training Hill and Moorland Leader (HML) Assessment

Cost: approx £250

is also open to those with 40 logged quality hill walking days, who have completed HML training or gained MT exemption. This course may be completed on its own (30 hours) or in addition to the Level 3 assessment included in the same overall fee.

Mountain Training Mountain Leader Award (ML) Training

Cost: approx £450

This course is for those with experience in remote and extreme country who have logged at least 20 quality mountain days.

Mountain Training Mountain Leader Award (ML) Assessment

Cost: approx £425

This course is for those who have completed Mountain Leader training or have had exemption from such training from MT, and who have logged at least 40 quality mountain days.

How can I find out more?

If you have any questions contact leadership@girlguiding.org.uk. If you're unsure whether you have enough experience for any of these courses, please email us a copy of your log book and we will advise you.

How can I book?

If you are interested in attending one of the walking courses, please complete this form and send it by Friday 11 June 2021, with a copy of your logbook to: leadership@girlguiding.org.uk
Or by post to: Sarah Webber, Learning and Development, Girlguiding, 17-19 Buckingham Palace Road, London SW1W 0PT.

Participants should arrive late afternoon Sunday 10 October 2021 for a meal together and in time for an introduction session that evening. All meals and dormitory accommodation in bunks will be provided and is included in the costs, but you will need to bring your own towel, sleeping bag, pillow case, expedition food (for ML courses), outdoor clothing and equipment. You are expected to cover your own travel costs. Safety equipment will be provided if required.
