Uniform Policies

Student dress code is the responsibility of the parent and the student. Students are expected to look neat and professional to encourage a successful day at school. If students are not dressed appropriately, a disciplinary action will be taken, including suspensions or removal from school or programs.

*Distracting makeup, nail polish, hair color, and unusual hairstyles, (mohawks) are not permitted.

*Jewelry: May be worn but not in exaggeration.

- a. For girls, piercings should be limited to the ears only; for boys, no piercings are allowed at all. Nose rings, eyebrow piercings, lip piercings, etc. are not permitted.

Sintra International Christian Academy's basic uniform consists of a red polo and a dark blue (navy) bottom.

- a. Girls are permitted to wear modest skirts or skorts that are at least knee length.
- b. Girls are also allowed to wear well-tailored pants (no skinny jeans, jeggings, leggings, or ripped pants are allowed).
- c. In the winter girls are allowed to wear either dark blue or black leggings, tights, etc. under their skirts.
- d. Boys are permitted to wear shorts (at least knee length) or well-tailored pants (no skinny jeans or ripped pants are allowed).
- e. Boys are permitted to wear dark blue sweatpants as long as they are not too baggy or too tight.

*The Academy's P.E. Uniform consists of a blank red t-shirt and dark blue (navy) sweatpants. If students choose to wear gym shorts they must be at least knee length.
