The 'Wheel of Fortune'

There is another circle found in many of the Gothic cathedrals that makes much the same spiritual point as the rose window. This is the so-called wheel of fortune. In most depictions of the wheel, a great circle is topped by a crowned figure, and over his head is the word 'regno' (I am reigning). Moving counter-clockwise along the rim of the wheel, we come to a man who has lost his crown and is tumbling downward, and next to him the word 'regnavi' (I have reigned). At the bottom of the wheel is the pauper dressed in rags, and his motto is the sad phrase 'sum sine regno' (I have no power). Finally, as we move upward on the right side of the circle, we come to the ambitious figure eagerly climbing to the top. And he says, 'regnabo' (I will reign). At the center of the wheel, at the meeting point of the spokes, is Christ.

Stewardship as a Way of Life:

"Rather, when you hold a banquet, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, the blind; blessed indeed will you be because of their inability to repay you" (Luke 14:13-14).

One of the main principles of living a stewardship lifestyle is to give without expecting anything in return. This is difficult for some to comprehend in the consumerist culture we live in. This is opposed to our parish offertory at Mass, where you unite your sacrifice with Jesus', renewing our covenant relationship with Him.

Diocesan Stewardship Day 2022 is Friday, September 16. This one-day retreat will include presentations, reflection time and celebration of the Eucharist. For more information, visit our website: <https://stcdio.org/stewardship>. To register: <https://www.surveymonkey.com/r/53D7LW6>
