Religious give thanks. Thank you for supporting last week's Retirement Fund for Religious collection. Visit retiredreligious.org to learn how your gift supports elderly sisters, brothers, and religious order priests.

Stewardship as a Way of Life: "For behold, when the voice of your greeting came to my ears, the babe in my womb leaped for joy." (Luke 1:44) When you hear the Scripture readings and Gospel reading at Mass, do you "leap for joy?" If not, don't blame the lector or priest; rather, look inside yourself. What are you doing to grow in friendship with Jesus? How do you prepare for Mass each week? Do you just show up and expect to be entertained? As the Body of Christ, we are called to be active participants, not just passive observers.

SACRAMENT OF MATRIMONY: Diocesan Policy requires that the Pastor be contacted at least 6 months before the anticipated date of marriage to allow time for premarital inventory, instructions and planning.

My dear friends in Christ,

At this time, Fr. George has decided to refrain from offering the Precious Blood at Mass, and we have received a number of questions regarding this decision. Just to be clear, other than the priest, a Catholic is not required to receive the Eucharist under both species (the species of bread and wine) at Mass.

Although receiving the Holy Eucharist under both forms is commendable, it is not required to do so. According to the Catechism, "since Christ is sacramentally present under each species, Communion under the species of bread alone makes it possible to receive all the fruit of Eucharistic grace" (Catechism of the Catholic Church, number 1390). In other words, when you receive the Body of Christ at Mass, you receive the whole Christ—the Body, Blood, Soul, and Divinity of our Lord Jesus Christ. The same is true when we receive the Blood of Christ. This is called the doctrine of concomitance.

In the Gospel according to John, Jesus tells us that "unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink His blood, you do not have life within you" (Jn 6:53). Again, according to the doctrine of concomitance, Jesus is not divided in Holy Communion. He is fully present in the smallest particle of the Sacred Host and the smallest drop of the Precious Blood. So be at peace!

St. John Vianney once said that "there is nothing so great as the Eucharist. If God had something more precious, He would have given it to us." Thanks be to God for the gift of the Holy Eucharist, and feel free to reach out if you have any more questions.

Peace,
Fr. Tom
