Congratulations to our Calendar Raffle winner this week. 11-11-22-Diane Rhode-Szarke-$100

We are finalizing our search for 52 $100 donations for prize money for our 2023 calendar. If you'd like to help us out, you can make your donation by placing it in an envelope marked "calendar" and putting it in the collection. Calendars will then go for sale for $50 late November and early December. Last call for square sponsors at $100. Please help us out if you can.

Our students welcomed Climb Theater on Monday this past week for a message about self-regulation and empathy. We continue to strive to teach social-emotional lessons regularly to our students.

Our K-3 grades will be heading to MSUM to attend a children's theater presentation on Wednesday of this coming week. They will also be stopping at the MSUM Planetarium. Sounds like a fun trip!

"Amen, I say to you: Whatever you ask in prayer, believe that you will receive, and it shall be given to you, says the Lord."

Mark 11:23-24

The Sunday School children had all been photographed with Father sitting in the center. Father was trying to persuade the children to buy a copy of the group photo.

"Just think how nice it will be to look at it when you are all grown up and say, 'There's Jennifer; she's a lawyer,' or 'That's Michael; he's a doctor.'" A small voice at the back of the room rang out, "And there's Father. He's dead."

Stewardship as a Way of Life:

“... Rather, we wanted to present ourselves as a model for you, so that you might imitate us.” — 2 Thessalonians 3:9

Most people who live a grateful and generous lifestyle don't go around bragging about it. But through their words and actions, others do take notice. They notice because of the joy and peace that results, and others desire this in their own life. Know that the way you live your life may be the only interaction others may have with our Catholic faith.
