Thanksgiving at Home

For Christians every time we celebrate the Eucharist it is a Thanksgiving Day. The word Eucharist means "thanksgiving". Although Thanksgiving is not a mandatory feast in the Church, we can share our gratitude by voluntary expressions like the ones suggested below:

- Give from your table: Give what you are able to support our local Food Shelves.
- Bless your bread: Families can bless their bread at home by extending hands over it before it is baked or served.
- Count your blessings: Make a family "thanks list" together.
- Say Grace before dinner: Say Grace or read Psalm 67.
- Celebrate the Eucharist: Going to Mass is a graceful way to begin the day focused on God's blessings in praise and thanks.

Stewardship as a Way of Life:

“... giving thanks to the Father, who has made you fit to share in the inheritance of the holy ones in light.” — Colossians 1:12

God wants us to be happy! Instead of looking at the Ten Commandments as being restrictive and telling us what we can't do, look at them as guides for living a joy-filled and peaceful life. Most of our problems arise when we put our own needs first or we spend most of our time trying to acquire more stuff. Instead, try putting God first in all things. We were made for God. Open your heart and let Him in!
