Fostering the Domestic Church: Sacred Scripture

Families are starting to get back into the rhythm of school. Our youth don't have to be the only ones returning to study. We are all called to be lifelong learners, especially when it comes to our faith and, in particular, the Holy Bible.

This coming Wednesday, September 30, is the feast of St. Jerome. St. Jerome was a fifth-century monk who translated the Bible into Latin. Sacred Scripture was an important part of his life. He is perhaps best known for his bold statement: "Ignorance of Scripture is ignorance of Christ."

Engaging with Scripture can be as simple as reading a few verses in the morning, afternoon, or evening. It can also be more involved, such as joining a Bible study or reading commentaries alongside your own reading. The important thing is that we make an effort to listen to the Word of God through Sacred Scripture.

Family Goal: Set a personal goal for engaging with Scripture. Set aside time as a family to read the Sunday readings before coming to Mass, or explore other passages of Scripture that your family finds fruitful.

Stewardship as a Way of Life: "Do nothing out of selfishness; rather, humbly regard others as more important than yourselves..." Philippians 2:3

Pride and ego are hard things to control. We see how others act or dress and think we are superior to them. We idolize our own self-image. But, if we truly believe everything is a gift from God, we recognize all the people that God has put in our lives as gifts! We are grateful for how they enrich our lives. Pray every day for the people in your life: your family, your friends and those who make you angry.

Care for Creation: The Church teaches that caring for creation is inseparable from Caring for the people who depend on it. When we protect the land, we protect families, communities and future generations. Learn more at <https://stcdio.org/care-for-creation/> or use your smart phone.

WELLNESS MINUTE

St. Joseph Cupertino (1603–1663) was an Italian Franciscan friar honored as the patron saint of those with mental handicaps, learning disabilities, and developmental disorders. He was labeled as slow to learn and socially awkward, often struggling with basic tasks and formal education. Despite these challenges, he passed his seminary exams through divine intervention. Psalm 139:13-14, declares humans are "fearfully and wonderfully made." St Cupertino used his handicap to honor and glorify God.

Imagine having an illness that causes people to look down on you. You may become overwhelmed by the social stigma. St. Cupertino had great humility and piety, and loved God with all his heart. Whenever he prayed, he was literally lifted off the ground, which earned him the nickname "The Flying Saint."

Our message from St. Cupertino is to trust in the Lord always. God works through our weaknesses to do amazing things in our lives. As a reminder from Isaiah 41:10: "Do not fear, for I am with you; do not be anxious, for I am your God. I will strengthen you and help you; I will uphold you with my victorious right hand." St. Joseph Cupertino, pray for us!

Bible in a Year

The Bible in a Year podcast is a rich challenge for Christians to journey through the Bible in one year. Deacon John Bell (deaconjohn@ncacc.net) has resources available and can help you get started on this journey.

For those interested in doing it together, we will begin our journey on September 30, the Feast of St. Jerome. Participants will read or listen independently and gather weekly for encouragement and discussion. We will meet at St. Henry's at 7:45 p.m. on Wednesdays. Attending weekly is supplemental to this spiritual endeavor.

If you are interested in participating with others or independently, please contact Deacon John for more information. If Wednesday evenings don't work, please contact Deacon John.

Box of Joy® gifts are Christmas gifts sent to children in developing countries like Haiti, Malawi and the Dominican Republic. Your donation will demonstrate Christ's compassion to a child who may have never received a Christmas gift. Help us bring a small bit of Christ's joy to them by participating in the Box of Joy program. It may seem early to start now, but it takes a few months to get the shopping done, boxes filled and turned in and then shipped to children in economically deprived countries. Deadline for Boxes of Joy is the first weekend of November. If you have questions, contact Carol Peeters at peeterscarol19@hotmail.com or text 218-371-1817.

Congratulations to our Calendar Raffle winners this week: 9-25-26-Sandi Kollar - $100

We invite you to our upcoming gala. This event provides funds for unbudgeted items for the school. This fundraiser is a fun, social evening that is designed for anyone. Tickets are available at the church office or school office for $50. We hope to see you there on Saturday, Oct. 10 at 5 PM at the Perham Lakeside Event Center.

The Marathon for Non-Public Education will be held on Saturday, October 3rd at 10 AM at the Arvig Park Bike Trail. Students will be out and about requesting pledges for the school. With your continued support, we are able to offer Christ-centered education to the students of our area. If you aren't approached by a student, but would still like to support the marathon financially, just drop a donation in the collection marked Marathon. Thank you for continuing to support the school.
