Why do we bow at the name of Jesus?

When we bow our heads at the name of Jesus during Mass, we are participating in an ancient tradition rooted deeply in Scripture. Saint Paul tells us in his Letter to the Philippians that God bestowed on Christ "the name that is above every name, so that at the name of Jesus every knee should bend" (Phil 2:9-10). Because physically genuflecting is reserved for the real presence of Christ in the Eucharist, the Church asks us to "bow the knees of our hearts" by bowing our heads instead. It is a brief, beautiful moment of physical reverence that reminds us of the supreme authority of our Savior and the reality of the Incarnation — that God truly became man to save us.

This devout practice is actually written directly into the official guidelines of the Mass. The General Instruction of the Roman Missal instructs the faithful to make a simple bow of the head not only at the name of Jesus, but also at the name of the Blessed Virgin Mary, the Saint whose feast is being celebrated, and when the three Persons of the Trinity are named together (Father, Son and Holy Spirit). By incorporating our bodies into our worship through these small gestures, we help keep our wandering minds focused on the sacred mysteries. It transforms a simple spoken word into an active prayer of adoration, uniting the whole congregation in a shared sign of respect and love.

May God Bless us all, now and forever!

Deacon Richard Quistorff

DIOCESAN NEWS

Bishop's Annual Appeal - Hearts of Mercy: Please accept our deepest gratitude to those of you who have already supported diocesan ministries this year. As of Monday, September 21, the Bishop's Annual Appeal for 2026 has raised cash and pledge gifts of $1,267,969 toward our goal of $1,550,000 (81.80%). This was made possible through the generous donations of 5,985 people throughout the 16 counties of our diocese. For weekly updates on our progress and to help these ministries meet their funding needs,

Stewardship as a Way of Life: "The stone that the builders rejected has become the corner stone..." - Matthew 21:42

Jesus was rejected by the religious and political leaders of his day, as well as ordinary citizens, but he was still obedient to God, the Father. Similarly, living a stewardship lifestyle may cause you to be "rejected" by others, but we, too are called to be obedient. Saying grace before a meal in a restaurant may attract some strange looks from some. But to others it is a sign that God is alive and well!

Care for Creation: Care for Creation is one of the seven themes of Catholic social teaching and one of Bishop Patrick's priorities. As faithful stewards of creation, we demonstrate our reverence for the Creator by respectfully and responsibly managing the earth. Please check out the Care for Creation guide at: <https://stcdio.org/care-for-creation/> or use your smart phone.

WELLNESS MINUTE

St. Thérèse of Lisieux (1873-1897), a French Carmelite nun, is referred to as the "Little Flower" because of her childlike dependence on God. She said, "Holiness consists simply in doing God's will, and being just what God wants us to be."

Thérèse is the patron saint of the sick and suffering. She overcame many obstacles: At a young age, her mother died. Thérèse battled serious mental and emotional issues, including anxiety, obsessive-compulsive disorder, and scrupulosity (an obsessive fear of sinning). She persisted to become a Carmelite nun at age 15. Her autobiography, The Story of a Soul, details her spiritual darkness, and suffering from tuberculosis, proving mental illness and brokenness are not barriers to holiness.

St Thérèse's approach is simple and practical. Her "Way" is one of complete trust and surrender to God like that of a little child; complete abandonment to God believing that no matter what happens, God is in control. In 1997, St. John Paul II gave her the title of "Doctor of the Church," becoming the youngest Doctor of the Church. Each one of us is called to holiness. St. Thérèse pray for us!
