

Demand Reduction Webinar Series

Session #1 - Demand Reduction Introduction

Wednesday, Nov. 2
2-3:30 p.m.

In this session, attendees will learn about what demand reduction is and how it has the capacity to reduce human trafficking. This session is also an introduction to the NC Demand Reduction Task Force. Register here: <https://bit.ly/3CEK8Nq>

In this session, attendees will learn from survivors of commercial sexual exploitation. This session will outline who the buyers are and what their motivations are. Register here: <https://bit.ly/3wGnP6j>

Session #2 - A Survivor's Perspective

Wednesday, Nov. 9
2-3:30 p.m.

Session #3 - Recovery is Possible

Wednesday, Nov. 16
2-3:30 p.m.

This session expands on the similarities of the vulnerabilities that can lead to victimization, but also perpetration. In this session, attendees will hear from a recovered, compulsive sex buyer and a survivor. Register here: <https://bit.ly/3e419X4>

In this session, attendees will learn how to pull all the Demand Reduction techniques and skills together to create an effective strategy to end demand for human trafficking. Register here: <https://bit.ly/3AYtG9t>

Session #4 - Putting It All Together

Wednesday, Nov. 30
2-3:30 p.m.

For more information about this webinar series, email Melinda Sampson at melinda@ncstophumantrafficking.org

This webinar series is sponsored by the N.C. Demand Reduction Task Force:

Defense
Against Trafficking.

