

Garden In The Sky

I know father, there's two gardens
One's the womb pre-conscious paradise.
I'm a thief and I'm a hunter
For the other garden in the sky

When I am not conscious
My body just wonders
Inside to
Inside to
Inside to outside

I'm not conscious I just wander
Point my compass inside to outside
When I understand my sunder
I can leave this pool I sit beside

Boatsong

You're lost so I went out with drums and pipes
You're lost so I sent music through the night
You're lost and time is short to bring you back
I play a boatsong and I hear you sing it back

Are my
Are my senses
Asking the right questions?
You're too far
You're too far to hear the boatsong
Our time's almost ended
Divine intervention
'till from afar
From afar you hear the boatsong

You're lost so I went out with bells and chimes
You're lost gone amongst the moths at night
You're lost so I wore clothes all painted red
I go on and pray I see you ahead

Are my
Are my senses
Asking the right questions?
You're too far
You're too far to hear the boatsong

Pick me up, God!

Pick me up into your hand
Be gentle when putting me back
I ask why, when up high
My body feels so flat

I don't get answers I seek
Everything comes with a wink
The wind it strains into place
Putting me back to sleep

It's way out there (come on baby it's way out there)
Come on pick me up, God come on pick me up
It's way out there (come on baby it's way out there)

Like a child going at night
Into rooms where there's a light
Let the day come right away
The darkness feels so strange

I can say that I am blind
To the steps that I can't find
Pick me up in your hand
Before the ground
Falls away

It's way out there (come on baby it's way out there)
Come on pick me up, God come on pick me up
It's way out there (come on baby it's way out there)
Come on pick me up, God come on pick me up

Grace

I've got no-one to forget
Moonlit eyes just make me dizzy
Grace is all that I have left
Watch you fall from somewhere
Kiss you slowly on your neck
You can wake me without speaking
You are all that I have left
I know you're somewhere

Grace on me
Grace on me
Cleanse me from it

Grace on me
Can't sleep 'cause these lights too lofty
Pray on me
Say sweet things to me like toffee
Grace on me
Spend time in my mind like Dali
Grace on me
Grace is the thing that

Grace is the thing that calms me

I've got no-one to forget
Moonlit eyes just make me dizzy
Grace is all that I have left
Watch you fall from somewhere
Kiss you slowly on your neck
You can wake me without speaking
You are all that I have left
I know you're somewhere

Grace on me
Can't sleep 'cause these lights too lofty
Pray on me
Say sweet things to me like toffee
Grace on me
Spend time in my mind like Dali
Grace on me
Grace is the thing that
Grace is the thing that calms me

Lonely Writer

Lonely writer, sing like choirs, Christmas Day
Don't let anger break the quiet of my face
Tell a story of the minutes of each day
Lonely writer, you spend hours, make your case

Scene I'm writing, lonely mountain, centre stage
Bells arriving, ring impatient through the day
Pen in cradle, writing fable, pass away
Telling stories which inhabit every page

I was writing stories, I was crafting pages
Every night I'm talking, into empty spaces
I was writing stories, I was crafting pages
Every night I'm talking, into empty pages
Pages...

Slip Away

I only floated for a moment
They dragged my bed out of the sea today
But they left me in the ocean
I get the feeling I might slip away

Go, I'm fairing by stars
But how long will I see them for?
No, I'm sailing too far
How long have I been sleeping for?

Go, I'm fairing by stars
But how long will I see them for?
No, I'm sailing too far
How long have I been sleeping for?

I only drifted for a moment
They dragged my feet out of the bed today
So I curled up like a lotus
While I fight the urge to slip away

Go, I'm fairing by stars (but why am i?)
But how long will I see them for?
No, I've drifted too far
How long have I been sleeping for? (Go, go, go, go)

Go, I'm fairing by stars
But how long will I see them for?
No, I'm sailing too far
How long have I been sleeping for?

Go, I'm fairing by stars
But how long will I see them for?
No, I'm sailing too far
How long have I been sleeping for?

Running Away Out Of The Window

Kiss me or cry, jump onto vines, almost divine
Sweet but your eyes, like Coraline, can't bare the light
Come we must go, hope they don't follow us to our new home
If they do keep you out of sight so suis-moi au château

Run away, 'fore it catch light
Run away, earthly delight
Don't be too slow, leave before it gets too cold
Don't fear the world that's outside

Kiss me or cry, watch out for vines, almost divine
(Oh yeah I)
Sweet like your eyes, orchard of wine, call it what you like
(To me I)
Jump out the window of your house, meet me on the ground
(Oh wait I)
Catch you in air, lead you down the stairs, into the moonlight

There are people in this house
There was running in these hills
There was laughter in these walls
'Till it fell back, 'till I felt bad
There was drama in these pools
There were horses at my back
There were people in this house, that left me out, 'till I left out
There were promises I made
That I'll love you to the grave
That I won't go running back, running back, running back
Will you swear that you will keep your promises to me?
That you won't go running back, running back, running back?

Run away, 'fore it catch light

Run away, earthly delight
Don't be too slow, leave before it gets too cold
Don't fear the world that's outside

Run, run, run (Ah, ah, ah)

Art Pop Empathy

Dancer show me how you still smile
If we crash then we could start a road fire

If we crash then we can start a road fire
And if I die then I can watch the whole thing
Think you hate me so you cut the wrong wire
I must've said the wrong thing

I'm out of control
It came out of my head
It's starting to get real now
And I feel safer in bed
And I suddenly feel like I'm home in this place
And you call me your love but I don't feel the same

Let's make the world so high we can see heaven down below
And if I gotta leave here, please just do it to me slow
And if you need more time, we can die he'll tell us where to go
And if I gotta leave here, don't make me do it alone

If I fell then I could watch the sky swing
Like a marble from a chain that God holds
To be honest you're the reason I sing
The muse who I write these words for

I'm out of control
It came out of my head
I can't even sleep now
But it feels safer in bed
I suddenly feel at home in paradise,
And I don't know your name but I recognise your eyes

Let's make the world so high we can see heaven down below
And if I gotta leave here, please just do it to me slow

And if you need more time, we can die he'll tell us where to go
And if I gotta leave here, don't make me do it alone

What Keeps Us Together

We're not the same colour
We're not the same age
We say we love each other
But this love is so strange

We argue about anything
You're always so rude
You don't understand me
And I don't understand you

You act like you hate me
You treat me like dirt
But my love gets bigger
The more that it hurts

I used to tell you everything
I'm so lonely now
I miss you more than ever
And for that I'm not proud

What keeps us together
Why do I stay by your side
What makes it so hard
For me to say goodbye

What keeps us together
I wish I could leave
But my love for you
Is all I can see

What keeps us together

We make each-other cry
But that's soon forgot
Because a life with you
Is all my heart wants

I try to leave you
Flashing light and dark streets

But when I leave I feel lost
And you're the home that I need

You act like you hate me
You treat me like dirt
But my love gets bigger
The more that it hurts

I used to tell you everything
I'm so lonely now
I miss you more than ever
And for that I'm not proud

What keeps us together
Why do I stay by your side
What makes it so hard
For me to say goodbye

What keeps us together
I wish I could leave
But my love for you
Is all I can see

What keeps us together

We're not the same colour

Eurydice

You're in my arms like Eurydice
I'll protect you from everything
Bandage me with my own cloth
I only hope you stay with me

I carry you through rain clouds
And thank you for the sound
Of music on your lips and shadows on your brow

Sleep
Stay with me
Say to me what I'm hoping
Rays lay with me
Came to me when I'm lonesome
This day with me
Say to me what I'm hoping

You stay with me
Teaching me to be open

Eurydice
Rain clouds
(Don't look back)
I can't see
(Don't look back)
Rain clouds
(Don't look back)

I'm holding you like Opheus
Pour my glass enough of you
Hills of trees with forbidden fruit
Eurydice I hope you stay
My joy is dancing in the dawn
This melancholy daylight fills you up
That's why you always choose the moon
Eurydice I hope you stay

Please stay with me
Teach me to be open
You came to me
Don't leave me while I'm lonesome
Rays lay with me
Showing me what I'm hoping
You say to me
Words that my heart is holding

Rain clouds
(Don't look back)
I can't see
(Don't look back)
Rain clouds
(Don't look back)

Don't look back, Eurydice

River Ghosts

Mama mama, come the river's dying
I'm here my dear, then she started crying
Never seen her cry before,
Never seen something die before
Don't worry, river ghosts will take her away

Don't worry, river ghosts will take her away

But you can't die
Hear my call
You said you'd never let me fall
Can I have
One last call
You said you'd never leave at all

My child, my child, help me read this writing
I'm old I'm old and my eyes are blinding
You can touch my face in the darkness
You can hold me here 'till the light arrives

Don't worry I'll take care of you now
Don't worry I'll take care of you

But you can't die
Hear my call
You said you'd never let me fall
Can I have
One last call
You said you'd never leave at all
