By order of

Reunion Committee 1980
Col (Ret) Donald R. Small, Commanding

The organizational meeting of the 107th Engineer Association was held in Marquette in 1961 as were the reunions of 1965 and 1970. Hardly seems possible that 10 years have slipped by since we last convened in the Queen City but by golly they have with increasing acceleration. Marquette, and the entire Upper Peninsula has much to offer as a recreational and tourist area for vacation purposes - certainly no comment necessary about the reunion except - they are just one helluva fine time! The reunion dates were necessarily moved up because the annual summer encampment for the 107th National Guard Battalion is scheduled for August this year. The site is determined, the dates are set, plans are made and the show is on the road - the rest is UP TO YOU!

SNEAK PREVIEW FOR 1981 REUNION

Since the 107th dates its official history and lineage from the August 8, 1881, formation of the Calumet Light Guards, the 1981 reunion will be held in that city to help celebrate the centennial. Plans are still not firm, but every effort is being made to make it the biggest and best ever held. Planned activities include a full battalion parade and participation by the Michigan Army National Guard Band.

SMALL WORLD

From: Embassy of the United States of America, Defense Attache Office, Paris, France

To : Mr. Edward C. Vickstrom, 2012 Washington Avenue, Ishpeming, Michigan

We have recently been presented with a photo of Company A, 107th Engineer Regiment (AEF) taken in July, 1918, at Bourbonne, France. If your organization or any museum dedicated to the 107th Engineers is interested in acquiring this photograph, we will be happy to forward it to you. The photo was provided by a French Army Colonel who found it in his home.

Roswell E. Round, Jr.
Brigadier General, USA, Defense Attache

Needless to say that HQ promptly requisitioned said photo along with grateful thanks to General Round for his thoughtful gesture.

Reflections on the 18th annual reunion in Ironwood last August in a still somewhat shell-shocked condition from the tremendous effort put forth and grand hospitality extended. Very few, if any, Co B National Guard members there had ever been exposed to a reunion, so the Co B volunteers were somewhat handicapped right from the start - even though Major Edwin Jachimski, Assoc. Pres., is a seasoned reunion campaigner. Also, the petrol situation was a ominous obstacle and lower than normal pre-reunion registrations made the attendance situation all the more questionable. But talk about pleasant surprises! A really good show, numbers beyond expectations and wonderful time was had by all. The planning, effort, toil, sweat, worry, dedication, etc. going into a reunion weekend you wouldn't believe. So for all this and much much more a sincere, heartfelt "thank you for a job well done" to reunion committee members: Maj Jachimski, Capt William Luoma, Vice Pres. & Asst. Reunion Chairman, Jim Sertich, Joe DeSantis, Dick Barringer, Bill Dowd Gary Kusz, 1st Sgt Bob Segalin, Terry Baksie and numerous other Company B men and ladies. We all should feel highly honored to be invited back to Ironwood sometime in the future.

Bitching out of the Co. C 254 ranks - how come no platoon photos of Co C? Reasons previously explained but will carefully go over the situation again. We have 3 Co. C photos 3½x5" in size - not 8 x 10's like the others. Main roadblock, however, is that only the 2nd Platoon has the personnel identified. Still hopeful though that someone will come to our rescue with the eagerly awaited information. If not, we'll just have to run Co. C "as is" and consider it a half-assed job. Andy Willenborg's pics pin - points the date as 14 Dec 1944 - just 2 days before the Krauts began their desperate winter offensive - the Battle of the Bulge - and the 254 was hit early in the morning of December 16th.

107th Battalion History

You were alerted on page one that the 107th will be celebrating its centennial in Calumet on August 8, 1981. To commemorate the event it is planned to publish a book on the battalion's long and colorful history. Included will be chapters covering all events, from the initial muster of the Calumet Light Guard, the formation of sister units in Marquette, Ironwood, Iron Mountain and Menominee, various strike duty, Spanish American War, WWI World War II, Detroit and other state activations. Research has unearthed much new material, including all the original WWII staff journals, operations reports, overlays, etc., in the Army Archives, Washington D.C. The project coordinator is Capt. Fred Stonehouse of the Ishpeming Armory. Anyone having material, photos (especially of WWII) are urged to contact Capt. Stonehouse, P.O. Box A, Ishpeming, Mich. 49849 (906-486-8741).

SHORT SNORTS

Hey! Hey! Hows about the Roster Additions in this issue? Sadly, losses are much too heavy so recruits are badly needed in order to keep the Association at full strength. Co C 254 has been understaffed from the time we organized but sure 'pears to me they got it going in high gear now."So what", may be reactions to the following picture from Volume 2 of "The Universal Standard Encyclopedia". The Allied's "Bazooka" and the

German's "panzerfaust" were effective anti-tank weapons for the WWII dog faces. What then makes this particular picture so special? The portrayed bazooka team are 254th blokes, thats what! The loader is Albert M. "Bert" Salo (Co C 254) who coughed up Volume 2 at Ironwood conning ye' editor with a PX "pepsi" and rib-jarring hint it would make for good copy in the next B.S. Bert sez the launchman was a 254 lieutenant but unable to recall his name. Will the rightful officer please step forward for duly earned credit - or can someone else furnish identification?.....Dear Ed Vickstrom: "It was good to get the BULL SHEET again and to see some of the old names. Unfortunately, age and heart have caught up with me and I cannot make the reunion in the flesh. However, of my many units, my heart is still with the 1121 Group and its outfits. I still think that we were the best. Good luck to all of you." Col. McDonough..... "It has been 6-7 months since Jim Scalzo and I have heard from you. Whats up - hope you've not been sick. We are looking forward to the next BULL SHEET and the next reunion. Shall we send you a book of stamps? Please get in touch." Robert S. Park (both Co B 254).....a timely call from Wilbur "Neil" Hodge (Co D 107) all excited about receiving a letter from old buddy Thomas B. McCaigue, a recent addition to the active roster, and their first contact since their days together in the 522nd. Neil figures to work another 3 years as construction superintendent and Tom recently retired from the Milwaukee postal system....."Keep the BULL SHEET coming - really enjoy reading it and knowing what some of the others are doing". This first-time report from (Lt) Timothy "Tim" Nulty (107-112-522) who recently moved to Marion, Ill. from Chicago....."I am the Pvt Perry, Nebraska, on the Co C photo - we moved to Arizona in 1950. I hope to make it to a reunion one of these years. Keep up the good work and many thanks for the personal note". Bob.....in the process of establishing a claim for service connected disability due to frozen feet during the Bulge, we got Louis Hurn (Co C 254) back on the active roster all the way from Florida..... a burning curiosity whether or not his old outfit held any kind of get-togethers prompted Keith "Red" Manley to crank up the horn and after several exploratory calls to Freeling Peck's old home town of Grand Rapids, Mich. successfully located Peck in Coopersville, Mich. That unplugged the dam. Peck to HQ; HQ to Manley; Manley to HQ with long sought for address on Kenneth "Sleeper" Perry (whose place of business is Ken's Tap in Strasburg, Ill.). Also this report: "Have been trying to contact Henry R. Crews for a long time. Last I heard of him was from a man who worked for the McDonald & Crews Construction Co. in the Los Angeles area. Will keep trying". Then shortly thereafter: "Guess what? I called Red Bluff, Cal. information and made connection with Hank's brother who in turn gave me Hank's phone number and Willits, Cal. address. Talked to Hank for over an hour this morning. Like me, he didn't how to get in touch with anyone for information about our old 254. We are both very anxious to get to a reunion and will." Needless to say all these ex-members of Co C 254 were given all the poop pronto..... "Many years have slipped by since WWII and still I have not yet made it to a reunion. Perhaps 1980 will be my lucky year. During the ensuing years I have managed to see some of the boys - Zdybel, Leaf, Schuler, Steele and Bond. Steele (Lt James C.) (Co C 254) and Bond (Lt Arlen, Co B 254) live nearby and perhaps I can induce them to make the trip with me. I have enjoyed the B. S. a lot and it keeps me up to date with the old gang. (WO) Joseph A. Censabella, Personnel Off. 254).....beautiful handwriting conveying this report: "Am enclosing my dues for the year but expect that I will not be able to make the reunion. At 88 years one doesn't fly very high or far. Noted with regret the passing of Cub Haugh & Jack Gazvoda. Jack, Jim Weed and I roomed together in Oberbeiber, Germany. There aren't too many left from Co B of the WWI 107th. Hope that I'll be able to continue sending my dues for many more years". George A. Koebke, Manitowoc, Wis. FINIS!
